

Soccer symbolizing the spirit of Wesleyan at Homecoming

THE WESLEYAN
ALUMNAE

VOL.
XXIX

NOVEMBER
1953

WESLEYAN COLLEGE LIBRARY
MACON, GEORGIA

Bequest Column

Robert Otis Jones
Loula (Evans) Jones
Mary B. Merritt
Edward Trippe Comer
George Collier Comer

Laura Ellen (Butts) Hinkle

Sarah H. Bradley
William C. Bradley

The Classes of:

1948
1949
1950
1951
1952

James Hyde Porter
Elsie Gibson Hart
T. E. Huggins
Charles Merrill
Joe M. Cox

Elizabeth (Studstill) Nelson
Ella (Parker) Leonard

The Atlanta Alumnae Club

Lucile Thompson Jones

Alpha Delta Pi
Silas Johnson
Walter H. Turpin
Eloise (Cooper) Cannon
Marion (Luse) Chenery
Julian Clay Murphrey

Shoulder to Shoulder - Forward Together

The opening of college has been a great experience! One of—may be—the best we have had for a long time. You too would have thrilled to see the 416 degree students file through the registration line. You can describe these lovely Wesleyannes only by using such adjectives as lovely, charming, sweet, capable and scholarly. Only yesterday a father said to me, "Where did you find so many beautiful girls." We are all proud of our students!

The Wesleyan spirit is a contagious thing. Occasionally I am asked to explain it. You can put just so much down on paper. Beautiful campus, commodious buildings, mutual respect, the honor system, the will to achieve, not demanding "rights" for one's self and denying the same "rights" to others. But really, you cannot put on paper the great singing during chapel and the quick friendly smiles. You can't do this because you can't capture a "spirit" and reduce it to the level of a pen and paper. You have to live it to experience it!

Actually the secret—if you can call it a secret—which it really is not, is to be found in the hearts of the Wesleyan family. An increasing number of good people love Wesleyan College and intend to support its program of Christian Education with their prayers and their gifts at every possible occasion. The following is deserving of your full consideration:

We must put the Loyalty Fund high on our list of important things. The increase of $1,375.08 is a source of great encouragement to all of us. The old saying, "Nothing succeeds like success," should be amended to read, "Nothing succeeds BUT success." Every alumna giving something to the Loyalty Fund would create a national record of some sort. It could be done! Say this to yourself, "This is our college—MINE—and without ME the college cannot do its full work." This idea put into practice will solve many problems. Shoulder to shoulder, let us go forward together!

Let us all pull together for a great college, a great cause, great young Wesleyannes.

Your colleague,
B. Joseph Martin

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

November, 1953

Malene (Lee) Morgan

Editor and Acting Alumnae Director

Published November, February, May and August. Subscription price $1.00 per year.
Member of the American Alumni Council.

Entered as second-class matter February 12, 1925, at the Post Office in Macon, Ga., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Address communications regarding change of address and news items to The Alumnae Office, Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia.

The Wesleyan Alumnae

Twenty-Sixth Formal Opening of Wesleyan College On The Rivoli Campus

September, 1953, will long be remembered at Wesleyan first, because it marked the beginning of the second quarter century on the Rivoli campus and second because it brought the fine arts students and the liberal arts students together on the Rivoli campus for the first time. The spirit of oneness and unity was felt at the formal opening held in September, and it was thrilling to see the faculty and students completely fill the seats in the Porter Gymnasium.

LOEMKER SPEAKS

Dr. Leroy E. Loemker, professor of philosophy and chairman of the department at Emory University, spoke on the subject "College and Your Perspective." He reminded the students that they were now beginning a new life in a community of learning, a community of problem solving, a community of character building, a community of self-discovery. He urged the students to follow the rules an artist might follow in painting a masterpiece by first selecting a master to follow . . . the Master.

WELCOME FROM HEADS OF CGA

Jeannice Hammond of West Palm Beach, Fla., and Ruth White of Atlanta, co-presidents of the Wesleyan College Government Association, welcomed the students. Jeannice admitted that when the change was proposed they pouted a little over the thought of leaving their dearly beloved halls and towers, but the fact Wesleyan meant more to them than just buildings was evidenced by the number of girls returning this fall.

Ruth White stated, "We are beginning one of the most historic years at Wesleyan. Beginnings bring with them many changes, adjustments, problems, and pleasures; but if the people they affect are strong enough, big enough, have sound judgment, then no problem is too big to solve. One thing never changes . . . the spirit of Wesleyan. Wesleyan is more than a group of people. It is a way of life. If we will work, play, smile, and cry together, soon we will become closely bound together. This is the beginning of a new year . . . the beginning of a greater Wesleyan."

WELCOME FROM THE TWO DEANS

Dr. Sigurd Jorgensen, the new dean of the school of fine arts, spoke of his hopes for the future. Dr. S. L. Akers, dean of the school of liberal arts, spoke in retrospect, referring to the fact this was his twenty-fifth formal opening program. He came to Wesleyan from Yale University in 1928, the year the Rivoli campus opened. Others in the audience who had been at Wesleyan College these twenty-five years were asked to rise. Present were Miss Christine Broome, Miss Elizabeth Winn, Mrs. Doris Jelks, Miss Katherine Carnes, and Mr. J. W. W. Daniel.

WELCOME FROM THE METHODIST CHURCHES

The Methodist churches in the Macon District extended a cordial welcome to the student body through the District Superintendent, Mr. Luther B. Harrell.

Important Dates To Alumnae

Annual Council Meeting and Workshop—November 17, 1953

Council Meeting — 11:00 a.m. in Student Parlors for all national officers, Board of Managers, representatives of clubs, classes and student organizations, and friends of Wesleyan.

Dutch Lunch at Wesleyan College — 12:45 p.m.

Workshop — Theme: "Painting a Picture of Wesleyan." 1:30 p.m. in student parlors for all alumnae from Macon and out of town, to get better acquainted with the opportunities offered at Wesleyan Today.

Joint Inauguration of Mercer and Wesleyan Presidents

January 21, 22, 23, 1954

January 21: Evening, joint meeting at the City Auditorium

22: A.M., inauguration of Mr. George Boyce Connell at Mercer

22: Afternoon, tea in old Conservatory parlors honoring the first ladies of Mercer and Wesleyan, with alumnae of Mercer and Wesleyan as joint hosts.

22: Evening, inauguration of Dr. B. Joseph Martin at Wesleyan in Porter gymnasium.

22: A.M., joint meeting at Mercer.

Left to right, Dr. Jorgensen, Jeannice Hammond, Ruth White, Dr. Martin, Dr. Loemker, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Harrell, and Dr. Akers.

NEW DEAN OF FINE ARTS SCHOOL

Dr. Sigurd Jorgensen, former head of the music department of West Liberty State College of Ohio, has been named dean of the School of Fine Arts at Wesleyan College. He will also be head of the music department and professor of music education. He was born in Copenhagen, Denmark, and received his bachelor of music education degree from the McPhail School of Music and his Ph.D. from Ohio State University. He formerly played in the first violin section of the Columbus Philharmonic Orchestra and served as head of the music department of the University of Akron before going to West Liberty.

Dr. Sigurd Jorgensen

CHANGES IN FACULTY AND STAFF

Dr. R. Vernon Fay, formerly professor of music at New Mexico Highlands University, is the new associate professor of voice and choral activities. A graduate of Wayne University, Detroit, with highest honors, Dr. Fay holds a Master of Arts degree from the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N.Y., and received the Ph.D. degree from the same institution. A baritone, Dr. Fay has served as soloist with several church choirs and with the Detroit Community Symphony Orchestra. While at New Mexico Highlands University a college and community chorus was organized under his direction.

Mr. Lee H. Stoner of Lincoln, Neb., is associate professor of education and head of the department. He will also direct teacher training on the secondary level. He holds the bachelor of science degree in education and the master of arts degree from the University of Nebraska. He has taken two years of work toward the doctorate from the same institution. Stoner served one year in the public school system of Nebraska and two in Iowa. At the Iowa school he also held the principalship. For the past three years he has supervised student teaching at the university and also has supervised the social studies program in the campus laboratory school. He is a veteran of World War II.

Dr. Richard Klemer of Tallahassee, Fla., is associate professor of Sociology and head of the department of sociology and economics. He is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with the degree of Bachelor of Arts and holds the doctorate from Florida State University. In the field of teaching, Klemer has served as a teacher-counselor in marriage and family relationships. During World War II he served as a public relations specialist. Also he was the director of public relations for a regional association of heavy engineering and highway contractors in Pennsylvania. Immediately before enrolling at Florida State he was associate to the director of the expansion program of the University of Miami at Coral Gables.

Mr. Norman McLean of Alamo, Tenn., is associate professor of voice and the history of music in the School of Fine Arts. A graduate of the University of Alabama with the Bachelor of Music degree, McLean holds the Master of Arts degree from Columbia University. An accomplished student of opera and oratorio, he has done extensive concert work in Tenn., Ala., Mass., Illinois, and New York. He was formerly associate professor at Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and at the James Millikin University in Decatur, Ill.

Miss Ethel Martin of Jasper, Ga., is assistant professor of religion and director of religious life on the campus. A graduate of University of Georgia with the Bachelor of Arts degree, Miss Martin holds a Masters degree from the Candler School of Theology at Emory. As a teacher in the department of religion she will offer courses in religious education, worship, recreation leadership and camp leadership. She will also direct and supervise majors while they are serving apprenticeships in the city churches. Before coming to Wesleyan, Miss Martin was director of Christian education at Centenary Methodist Church in Winston-Salem, N. C., and taught religious education at Salem College.

Mr. Lewis Warwick comes to Wesleyan as associate professor of mathematics while Miss Virginia Carlton is taking a year's leave of absence. Mr. Warwick before coming to Wesleyan was head of the mathematics department and dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Bob Jones University. He was graduated from Asbury College with the Bachelor of Arts degrees, received the Master of

Miss Upshaw

Dr. Fay

Mr. Stoner

Miss Martin

Dr. Klemer

Mr. McLean

Arts degree from the University of Michigan and is now studying toward his doctorate at N. Y. U.

Miss Jakie Upshaw of Marietta, Ga., is the new director of the physical education department succeeding Miss Dorothy Thom who is at Graduate School, Emory University. Miss Upshaw is a graduate of Concord College, Athens, West Va., with a Bachelor of Science degree and holds the Master of Arts degree from Peabody College at Nashville.

Two new members have joined the art department. Mrs. Aubrey Jones, who was graduated from Sophie Newcomb College with a bachelors degree in design, is a special lecturer in art and education. Mr. Houser Smith, a 1946 graduate of Wesleyan School of Fine Arts, is visiting instructor in fashion design. He replaces Mrs. C. W. English who is on a year's leave of absence.

Miss Susan Thigpen, a 1953 graduate of Wesleyan, is an instructor in piano.

Dr. Gulnar Bosch, formerly head of the history of art department on the Rivoli campus, has been named head of the art department for the College.

Miss Bruce Flanders is back as an instructor in Biology after a year's leave of absence due to ill health.

Mr. Edwin J. Zobel, Jr., of Columbia, S. C., has been employed as business manager for the college. He is a graduate of the University of South Carolina and was formerly serving as assistant disbursing officer in the U. S. Disbursing office at Columbia. Mr. Zobel relieves Frances Strohecker of the job of business manager so she can give full time as secretary to Dr. Martin.

Mrs. Frank Estes, formerly assistant to the Dean of women at Wesleyan, has been appointed Counselor of Students to succeed Miss Iva Gibson who accepted a position as Dean of Women, Alabama Woman's College, Montevallo, Ala. Mrs. Estes had been assistant to the Dean of Women at Shorter College for ten years before coming to Wesleyan three years ago.

Mrs. Jane B. Hurst has been appointed head dietitian at the College, coming from Shorter College where she had been for the past twenty-two years. Mrs. Hurst succeeds Mrs. Mamie Fleming who has retired and is making her home with her daughter in Charlotte, N. C., and Evelyn (Estes) Somerville, '13, who has retired and is now back at her home, 501 S. LeFlore Ave., Cleveland, Miss.

Mrs. Ida McFadyen of Savannah is the new R. N. taking the place of Mrs. J. W. Cowart who retired due to ill health.

Mrs. Ethel Maxwell of Durham, N. C., has been named a field representative for Wesleyan in the department of student promotion and recruitment. She replaces Tekla Jean Davis who resigned in June to be married. Mrs. Maxwell attended both High Point College and Duke University where she studied in the field of religious education and Christian homemaking. She also majored in religious education at Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., and received a teaching certificate in kindergarten work from the National Kindergarten Association of New York City. She has had wide experience as a counselor and worker among young people, such as youth assemblies, Christian adventure camps; as a district director of youth work and conference secretary of children's work in the W.S.C.S. Since the death of her husband, the Rev. S. A. Maxwell, she has served as Director of Christian Education at the Asbury Methodist Church in Durham.

Jeanette (Wallace) Oliphant, '26, formerly counselor of students at the School of Fine Arts, is in charge of the new pharm located in the Student Center on the ground floor of Tate Hall.

Mrs. Cora Ketchum, who acted as assistant to the counselor at the School of Fine Arts, will assist Mrs. Estes as counselor on the Rivoli campus.

Miss Elizabeth Hoge, formerly head librarian at the School of Fine Arts, is assistant librarian to Katharine P. Carnes, since both libraries have been consolidated on the Rivoli campus.

Mrs. Juanita W. Johnson, formerly secretary to the dean at the School of Fine Arts, is now secretary to Elizabeth Winn and Alice Domingos, registrars of the Liberal Arts and Fine Arts Schools respectively, on the Rivoli campus.

Mrs. Grace Northington, formerly in charge of the book store at School of Fine Arts, is in charge of the book store on the Rivoli campus located in the new Student Center.

Mrs. Anne Coleman, former bookkeeper, is secretary to Mr. Zobel.

Miss Mary Alice Phillips is assistant bookkeeper in the business office.

Mrs. Anne Griffin has returned to Columbia College, Columbia, S. C., where she will set up a radio department.

Mrs. Ethel Maxwell

Dr. W. E. Hopkins is with the Atlanta Division, University of Georgia.

Dr. John Walton has returned to Johns Hopkins University where he received his doctorate.

Mr. Emil Holzhauer has retired and built a home at Valparaiso, Fla. He plans to paint for pleasure.

Mrs. Lula J. Comer has retired and will be with her daughter at Patterson School, Legerwood, N. C., until November. She has been in ill health all summer.

Mr. Bertram Kelso is at Center College, Danville, Ky.

Miss Marian Lewis is at graduate school.

Mr. Wilbur Rowand is connected with the Dr. Pepper Bottling Co., in Macon, and is organist and choir director at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Leonard Norman is teaching at Teachers College, Fredonia, N. Y.

Mr. Sherwood Hall is teaching at Ohio University, Athens, Ohio.

Miss Mildred Hudgins is at the University of Texas, Austin, Texas, as head of a residence hall where an experiment in Christian Community living and religious study is being tried.

Miss Jane Tombaugh is with her mother in St. Petersburg, Fla., and Miss Milda Cizauskas is with her mother in LaGrange, Ill.

Mr. Tignor E. Thrasher is now connected with Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company and still making Macon home.

Professor Maerz

Professor Maerz Retires

By Lois (Bennett) Davis

Joseph Maerz, artist teacher of piano, has retired after a 39-year career at Wesleyan during which time he has endeared himself to two generations of young musicians and other friends of music.

Professor Maerz' many years at Wesleyan add up to one of the longest periods ever served by a faculty member. Last commencement when an alumna reminded him that he had taught during the terms of six college presidents, he said, "Yes, and do you know that Wesleyan is now 117 years old and I have spent one-third of those years on her campus?"

This gifted musician, known throughout the South both as teacher and virtuoso, was well established before he came to Macon, having appeared in more than 2,000 concerts in the United States, Canada and Mexico. He was accompanist for many notables, the most famous of whom was Madame Schumann-Heink; during the Jamestown Exposition his concerts were featured daily for several months. Indeed his entire life has been spent with music for he was born into a musical family where his marked talent was recognized early and fostered by the finest of teachers.

It was Wesleyan's good fortune when his scheduled European tour was cancelled at the outbreak of World War I, and he accepted the offer to organize and direct the music department here. He and his wife, Glenn Priest Maerz, who was also a musician, loved Macon and Wesleyan

WESLEYAN GREETS CLASS OF 1957

Interesting Facts About The New Girls

Rivoli students went all out to welcome to their new home the 184 freshmen, the 17 transfer students and the 116 Wesleyannes moving from the Hill to the country campus.

Orientation week for the new students, which began Monday morning, September 14, with a tour of the campus and a talk on the history and traditions of Wesleyan given by Freda (Kaplan) Nadler, president of the Alumnae Association, concluded with a special fall fashion show by Social Standards Friday night, September 18. During this week the new students became acquainted with the faculty, with the honor system at Wesleyan, the Athletic Association, the Y; received instruction in the Handbook, learned how to register, and how to use the library.

The students hail from 17 states, China, Japan, and Germany. They come from as far north as New York and Connecticut; as far west as New Mexico and California. The Macon day students number 30; the Macon boarding students, 13.

Over four hundred students are taking regular work toward degrees in both schools besides the 140 doing special work in the preparatory department. The preparatory department will still remain on the College Street campus. Students in art through high school age and all music students from beginners to advanced studio pupils are included in this department.

In the freshman class are two girls who are proud of the fact their ancestry boasts former Wesleyan College presidents. Jean Middlebrooks of Thomaston, whose mother is Frances (Horner) Middlebrooks, '27, can claim Bishop George Foster Pierce, first president, as her great-great grandfather. Brownie Bass of Macon is the great-granddaughter of Dr. William C. Bass, seventh president of Wesleyan.

Another freshman, Clift Evans Jones, called "Lady," is the granddaughter of the late Loula (Evans) Jones, '93, and Col. R. O. Jones of Newnan, friend and benefactor to Wesleyan. Col Jones served as a trustee for a number of years and was a member of the Greater Wesleyan Building Committee. He still has in his possession a "report of the standing" of Jennie (Moreland) Jones, A.B. 1872, his mother, for the term ending March 31, 1872. She had an A average, and her studies included original composition, physical geography, geology, Latin, French, mental philosophy, moral philosophy, Bible, penmanship, instrumental music and drawing and painting! Lady's great-great-grandfather, the late Rev. James E. Evans, was for many years chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wesleyan.

Jean Middlebrooks and Brownie Bass

THE NEW STUDENTS

Great-granddaughters of Alumnae

Clift Evans Jones Granddaughters of Alumnae

Betsy Comer Clift Evans Jones Faye Terrell Nancy Turner Katherine Upchurch Daughters of Alumnae

Ann Barnes Joan Bloodworth Catherine Brandon Alberta Brewer Adele Burgin Dolores Cole Laura Johnson Marguerite Malcolm Jean Middlebrooks

Great-granddaughter of Granddaughter of

*Jennie (Moreland) Sadler 1872

Lula (Johnson) Comer 1895

*Loula (Evans) Jones 1893

Lillie (Mitchell) Camp 1887

*Annie (Mallett) Watts 1900

Margaret (Finnery) Middlebrooks 1904

Daughter of

Aline (Cone) Crow 1917

Ruby (Winters) Bloodworth 1929

Lois (Daniel) Brandon 1932

Irene (Brewer) Brewer 1933

Myrtis (Garrett) Stowe 1930

Mildred (Jackson) Cole 1926

Jean (Roberts) Johnson 1925

Marguerite (Roberts) Malcolm 1922

Frances (Horner) Middlebrooks 1927

Faye Rowe	Kathleen (Jones) Rowe	1927
Shirley Salter	Annie Jo (Barron) Salter	1933
Ann Smith	Evelyn (Dunkin) Smith	1925
Mary Margaret Turner	Helen (Dover) Turner	1926
Katherine Upchurch	Katherine (Middlebrooks) Upchurch	1931
Charlye Wiggins	*Bobby (Tanner) Wiggins	1926

Nieces of Alumnae

Clift Evans Jones	Great-great aunt	*Mary (Evans) Glass	1851
	Great-great aunt	*Flewellyn (Evans) Strong	1871
	Great-great aunt	*Fannie (Moreland) Arnold	1876
Brownie Bass	Great aunt	Rosa Taylor	1892
Betsy Comer	Great aunt	*Georgia (Bass) O'Neal	1909
Jean Middlebrooks	Great aunt	*Rosa (Johnson) Ramsey	1897
	Great aunt	Elizabeth (Comer) Wiese	1924
Ann Barnes		*Blanche Middlebrooks	1893
Adele Burgin		*Claude Middlebrooks	1884
Anne Burris		Mary Bird (Horner) Harvey	1951
Dolores Cole		Claudia (Cone) Lockhart	1917
Elizabeth Field		Nanette (Ruff) Cone	1929
Mary Pierpont Riley		Constance (Shumaker) Garrett	1935
Martha Sisson		Suelle (Morton) Boyette	1920
Ann Smith		Dolores (Jackson) Davis	1928
Eleanor Thompson		Ethelene (Jackson) Brown	1936
Mary Margaret Turner		Ruth Field	1923
Nancy Turner	Great aunt	Lucille (Riley) Jordan	1904
Katherine Upchurch		Martha (Riley) Holliday	1913
Charlye Wiggins		Eddie Belle (Smith) Pierce	1924

Sisters of Alumnae

Peggy Campbell	Jean (Campbell) Calef	1948
Ruth Chapman	Jane Cary Chapman	1953
Joyce Clements	Joan Clements, Member of Senior Class.
Eleanor Deal	Evelyn Deal	1955
Jinny Dodd	Matilda (Dodd) Trawick	1950
	Rebecca (Dodd) Hollady	1951

THE ALUMNAE DAUGHTERS AND GRANDDAUGHTERS

Front row, left to right: Faye Terrell, Mary Margaret Turner, Ann Smith, Adele Burgin, Faye Rowe, Catherine Brandon. Second row, left to right, Alberta Brewer, Jean Middlebrooks, Laura Johnson, Dolores Cole, Marguerite Malcolm, Betsy Comer, Katherine Upchurch; third row, Shirley Salter, Ann Barnes, Clift Evans "Lady" Jones, Charlye Wiggins, and Nancy Turner. Not present for the picture was Joan Bloodworth.

so much that they decided to remain at the college. She was head of the violin department for 18 years; together they made their home a center of music and gracious hospitality until her death nine years ago.

Professor Maerz' former pupils are scattered throughout the world. They honor him not only for his consistent devotion to the highest art standards and the inspirational quality of his teaching, but for his essential kindness and good will, his courtly manner and above all for his joy in his chosen profession. Hundreds of alumnae treasure the album of Chopin recordings which he made especially for them, generously turning all his profits from the sale into Wesleyan's Second Century Fund. He is currently preparing for another series, recordings of Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, Schumann, Grieg and Mendelssohn, to be made in New York and sold at music stores throughout the country next year.

Now teaching private pupils both in Macon and Atlanta, he has been invited to give several concerts this winter in Macon and on neighboring campuses. As music critic for the Macon News he will continue to write his brilliant reviews. Although Joseph Maerz has retired from Wesleyan, it is evident that he will never retire from music.

Recipients of Danforth Scholarships

Ann Munck, A.B. Wesleyan 1938, M.A. Emory University, spent three weeks this summer at Union Theological Seminary in New York on a Danforth Scholarship. This seminar was on privileges and problems of Christian teaching. Ann joined the faculty of Wesleyan College in the fall of 1950.

Nancy Green, 1943 graduate of Agnes Scott, M.A. Emory University, attended a two weeks seminar at Penn State College for college teachers of natural sciences. There she heard Dr. Pollard, head of Oak Ridge Institute for nuclear studies. Nancy joined the Wesleyan faculty in the fall of 1952.

The Danforth Scholarships are awarded each year from a foundation set up to aid the study of religion in higher education. Five such institutes are held each summer.

Mary English	Sister-in-law	Theresa (Rett) English	1949
	Sister-in-law	Eugenia (Maddox) English	1951
Mary Eva Ford		Sidney (Ford) Tatom	1951
Sylvia Ann Hartman		Elise (Hartman) McElrath	1952
Susan Higgins		Sally Higgins	1953
Helen Hsi	Step-sister	Mary (Euyang) Loh	1946
	Step-sister	Gloria (Euyang) King	1948
Vivian Maxine James	Sister-in-law	Carolyn (Elder) James	1952
Ruth Locklin		Lois Locklin	1953
Georgia Walton		Linda (Walton) Burgess	1948
Sally Williams		Nancy Williams Member of Senior Class

Cousins of Alumnae

Mildred Ammons
Faye Anderson
Jean Anderson
Brownie Bass
Peggy Campbell
Betsy Comer
Jimmie Copeland
Patricia Fitzgerald
Margaret Gunnels
Susan Higgins
Christine Little
Carolyn Randall
Martha Pierpont Riley
Ann Smith
Faye Terrell
Beverly Turner
Nancy Turner
Katherine Upchurch

*Deceased

Biology Professor Cited By Highlands Trustees

On August 30 at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Highlands (N. C.) Biological Station Miss Thelma Howell, professor of biology and chairman of the department at Wesleyan, received a citation from the trustees.

The citation reads as follows: "To Miss Thelma Howell for distinguished and meritorious service as trustee since 1940, as director of the station in addition to her duties of the station." Miss Howell is serving as executive director of the station.

Cousin of

Jane (Epps) Henry	1947
Ann (Simmons) Davis	1948
Betty (Tillman) Hodges	1948
Shirley (Tillman) Dyer	1952
Margie Burks	1905
Octavia (Burden) Stewart	1906
Alice Cobb (Burden) Domingos	1908
Roy Domingos—Faculty member on leave	1937
Ann Maria Domingos	1939
Alice Domingos, Registrar of the Fine Arts School	1940
Claudia (O'Neal) Alston	1949
And many others too numerous to list!
Marylin (Huff) Angle	1949
Nina (Fish) McClesky	1894
Helen (Kilpatrick) Moseley	1924
Mickey (Haynie) Jackson	1955
Anne (Mashburn) Pierce	1948
Lula (Hays) Mathews	1927
Jean (Smith) Day	1952
LaRose (Day) Coar	1946
Inez (Ward) Wright	1932
Martha (Harrison) Middlebrooks	1944
Cordelia (Dessau) Holliday	1948
Jeanne Gellerstedt	1950
Mickey Terrell	1953
Marion (Shuptrine) Stringfellow	1921
Mildred (Shuptrine) Chance	1923
Jane Ann (Mallett) Settle	1947
Emily Mallett	1949
Marcia Mallett, Member of the Senior Class
Margaret (Fowler) Patton	1927
Octavia (Burden) Stewart	1906

Eunice Thomson Named to Methodist Post

Eunice Thomson, who has been on leave of absence from the Alumnae Office since September, 1952, has been named an administrative assistant in the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, Methodist Board of Missions, New York City.

Eunice did graduate work in Eng-at Emory University last year and was awarded the master of arts degree this August. She was given a fellowship in her last quarter of study.

Eunice Thomson

The Department of Christian Social Relations with which she is now associated is the social action "arm" of the Woman's Division of Christian Service. Among the areas of its concern are legislation, international affairs and peace, temperance, and race relations. Eunice's duties include office administration and conducting tours of the United Nations for groups which come from all parts of the United States.

Eunice is well known in Georgia literary circles and is loved by all Wesleyennes for her work with the alumnae since graduating from Wesleyan. In 1952 she became director of alumnae affairs and served in this capacity until she asked for the leave in 1952.

ANNOUNCING

A Luncheon

For Wesleyan Alumnae

at

GEA Convention

March 19, 1954

In Atlanta

See February Magazine for details and reservation blanks

First Alumnae Secretary Benefactor's Day Speaker

Who could have been more appropriately selected to tell of the glorious and romantic past of Wesleyan College and of her very first benefactors than her loyal and faithful daughter, who, a proven benefactor herself, pioneered in the work with the alumnae as Wesleyan's first alumnae secretary from 1924 until 1947—none other than Jennie (Loyall) Anderson, A.B. 1912.

This alumna spoke to the students and faculty on Benefactor's Day, October 16. She was introduced by Dr. Martin. Her address is given below:

We are gathered today to commemorate the laying of the cornerstone of the first building of Wesleyan College, 117 years ago, October 15, 1836, the first in all the world for a college chartered to grant degrees to women.

"Chartered as the Georgia Female College, changed seven years later to Wesleyan Female College and in 1920 to Wesleyan College, this institution has an important place in history. Its precedence in the higher education of women, its influence upon the culture of an entire section of the United States, its adherence for more than a century to the ideal that while the minds of youth are learning the truth about material things, their souls should be directed in the way of truth as revealed in the Christian religion. All these cannot be ignored in the record of American progress," according to General Walter Harris, Wesleyan Trustee.

The Laying of the Cornerstone was hailed by the Macon, Georgia, Telegraph in 1836 as "A bright page in the history of Georgia." The account said: "In the presence of a bright assemblage of the beauty and intelligence of city and country, and the trustees, was performed the ceremony of laying the cornerstone enclosing a jar containing examples of the current literature of the day and various gold and silver coins of the nation." Mr. Sinclair's impressive address softened the feelings "of the numerous auditory."

Elijah Sinclair, the speaker, was one of the leading spirits in founding Wesleyan, credited by some as the originator of the idea, as was Jerry Cowles.

The year before, June 1835, he and Reverend John Howard were the Methodist ministers assisting the pastor of Mulberry, Reverend J. W. Talley, in a pentecostal interdenominational revival held in that church. New members were swept into all churches, 150 into the Methodist Church alone. Among these was the Mayor, General Beal, and his Lady.

The first formal step in establishing the college was a mass meeting of citizens held immediately following the revival. From it followed a communication addressed to these three Methodist ministers—Sinclair, Howard, and Talley. It said: "In the ardent desire of many of our most respectable fellow-citizens that there should be established in our city an amply endowed institution for the education of females; and as it is believed your church possesses facilities for carrying through so favorite a scheme beyond that of any other in the state, we take the liberty of proposing The suggestion, followed that temporary trustees be appointed, three from the church and three from the citizens. It was signed by Mayor Beal, Jerry Cowles, Dr. Robert Collins, and Henry G. Lamar.

Jennie (Loyall) Anderson

Evidently, Elijah Sinclair's address at the formal ceremony of laying the cornerstone was a mild one compared to his stirring eloquence at earlier meetings when he was persuading his friends to undertake a college for women. Of one of these, Talley said: "If I had a copy of Sinclair's speech, and were able, I would have it graven on plates of gold to be hung in the spacious halls of the college."

When the prediction comes to pass that scientists perfect the technique of recapturing from the air wave lengths of the past so that we can tune in upon George Washington's "Farewell Address" or Lincoln's Gettysburg speech, I shall turn my dial to this earlier speech of Elijah Sinclair.

I shall tune in, too, to hear the first president of Wesleyan, George Foster Pierce. At the time he was made president of Wesleyan, when he was only twenty-eight years old, he was considered the most famous man in the state and the most eloquent of any denomination. Crowds followed him. Lord Macaulay of England said of him, "The purest diction written on the American continent today is that of George Foster Pierce."

Later he became bishop of his church and spoke from New York to California, but never once to an empty house nor to a listless audience. He used all his brilliance and eloquence and devotion throughout his lifetime for the cause of Christian education for women. In his agony to make others believe in it as he did, he accepted the position of agent for the college when he resigned as president, and for two years rode over the rough, new roads, pleading its cause.

He established a magazine, "The Southern Ladies Book," that the printed word might go out about the new college, and in its yellowed pages in the library today some of his eloquence is preserved.

Before I tune to Lincoln's address, there is one by a friend of his which I prefer to hear. As young congressmen in Washington, Lincoln and Alexander Stephens of Georgia were members of the same club, "The Young Indians." Later, they met for the last time in their lives at the Hampton Road Conference during the Civil War, as enemies of war, with Lincoln as president of the Union and Stephens, vice-president of the Confederacy, in an unsuccessful attempt to end the war by compromise.

The speech of Alexander Stephens that I would like to hear was one that he made at a joint session of the Georgia Legislature in December 1836, when the charter for this first college was all but lost. Some men were arguing that women could not learn and others that if they could, they should not.

Then Stephens, a young and unknown lawyer, rose to make his maiden speech and plead so eloquently for education of women that the charter was granted.

The very act of laying the cornerstone on that October day 1836 was one of faith. The charter had not yet been granted and eleven years before, in 1825, Duncan Campbell's bill to charter a college for females had been defeated in the State Legislature.

Nor could these citizens give their full time to planning the college. These same men were drawing the charter for the Ocmulgee Bank, for the Central of Georgia Railroad, for the first state railroad, the W & A (Western & Atlantic), which, when completed, found one terminus in a small unknown relay station which developed thereafter into the great railroad center and city of Atlanta, with the terminus in the other direction, bringing about the development of the city of Chattanooga.

Nor were these peaceful pursuits undisturbed. These same men these same years raised a company to respond to the cries of their fellow-citizens in Texas in the War of Independence from Mexico, taking with them the first lone star flag ever made, which Texas later adopted officially as its State Flag. The Macon volunteers rushed to aid the territory of Florida in quelling an Indian uprising, and the Bibb Cavalry were heroes in helping Alabama in a bloody Indian war.

Nor were enthusiasm, intelligent planning, time and effort all that these citizens gave. They opened their private purses and pulled out their private dollars to finance these enterprises. The handwritten list of the first contributors to Wesleyan is now in the library here. They also provided the capital for the bank, the railroad, and for the company of soldiers that went to Texas.

What manner of men were these citizens of 1836 with eyes upon far horizons, building a college for you and me?

They were pioneers hewing a civilization out of a wilderness warm from the footsteps of departing Indians on the southwestern frontier of the United States. I must confess that this was a tremendous surprise to me when I first realized it. For a long time I used to say (only to myself, fortunately) that since Oglethorpe brought over his colony to settle Georgia in 1733 and since Wesleyan was not chartered until 1836, the State of Georgia did not rush into establishing the first college for women.

In my ignorance I overlooked the fact that for ninety years the only settled portion of Georgia was a narrow strip of land along the coast, with the Oconee River at Milledgeville as the western boundary. The beautiful and rich central portion of the state was occupied by Indians. The Federal Government was dilatory in carrying out its promise to free Georgia of them peacefully. It was not until 1821 that the vast regions containing the present sites of Macon and Atlanta were cleared of them, and not until 1828 that the section containing the present site of Columbus was cleared. The Indians departing left behind them no settlements, but a complete wilderness. Into this wilderness eager citizens from other parts of the United States rushed, to begin chopping trees, building log cabins and rough roads, and eventually, thriving communities.

By 1835 Macon was twelve years old and a prosperous community of 4,000 inhabitants, with an additional 500 in the "nearby village of Vineville." It had seven regular steamboats, six daily stage coaches, three livery stables, two weekly newspapers, four churches and six schools.

The hard-won charter for its college was signed by Governor Wm. Schley, December 23, 1836, giving the privilege never before granted to an educational institution for women: "To confer all such degrees as are usually conferred in colleges and universities."

Four years later the first graduates led a procession that went forth, often into new settlements, as President Pierce said, to be "The Future Matrons of the Land in Cottages and Palaces" exerting an influence impossible to calculate, far beyond Wesleyan's size and strength, and far beyond the shores of one continent.

We pause in the turmoil of this tumultuous world today to remember these brilliant and devoted leaders of long ago. Their message to us across the years is clear. We, too, are pioneers — pioneers of the Atomic Age; and again the South is a frontier of the United States, this time a frontier of opportunity. The newspaper headlines tell us so daily: "The South, the economic spot"; "More Industry is headed South"; "Scientists see growth of Dixie." Other headlines tell that again the educational need is great: "School enrollment of United States to hit thirty million by 1978"; "Teacher shortage is critical"; "94,000 new students enter school in Georgia in September."

Of the 160 million inhabitants of the United States today, only 2,400,000 are in college. Of this number only 700,000 are women. There are one million more men than women in college. For every two boys now in college, there is only one girl. This is a tremendous waste of the full power of womanhood — in the arts, in science, in the professions, in government, and most of all, in the schools, churches and homes.

The message comes: Strengthen Wesleyan into a great college for these oncoming students. Persuade them to attend. Help them to do so.

Ten days ago, October 6, 1953, President Eisenhower proclaimed to 5,000 churchwomen two necessities upon the American people today:

- I. A "wasteful and devastating" production of atomic and hydrogen bombs that "can deter any attempt against those who want to be free" and
- II. From the protection of this might, to build, in his words, "slowly and tortuously a peace that will be won only by knowledge, courage, patience, and leadership," with the help of God.

To further the first necessity on September 24th, from Wilmington, N. C., America's first Atomic Artillery Battalion, 900 men strong, many of them fresh-faced youngsters with tears in their eyes, sailed for Europe to man giant atomic cannon for the peace-guarding NATO Army.

To further the second necessity in September, you came to Wesleyan College.

There was one time in history when it was possible to prove the result that one year in a college would have upon women . . . the first year in the first college for women.

President Pierce saw this, and wisely and dramatically demonstrated it. As the end of the first session approached in 1839, he announced in the newspapers that for four days, July 22 through 26, oral examinations of the students would be held. The parents and the public were invited to attend. The results, in his words, were "Exhilarating to the friends of the institution. So great was the enthusiasm of the masses that $20,000 was subscribed for the college in a single day and night."

"The most formidable prejudices were undermined."

One step lies immediately ahead in acquiring the knowledge that President Eisenhower specifies: So teach, so study this one year at Wesleyan that the results will be exhilarating to the friends of female education. For acquiring at the same time, the courage, the patience, the leadership that President Eisenhower suggests, there is the simple formula that St. Paul gave centuries ago:

God is Love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

PAST ALUMNAE TRUSTEE DIES

The many friends and the classmates of Lila May Chapman are grieved to learn of her sudden death on October 22. Sympathy is extended to her two nieces Margaret Chapman, '28, of Pleasantville, N. Y., and Lila Mae Chapman, '36, of Macon. An Alumnae Trustee of the College from 1933-36 and former national treasurer of the Alumnae Association, Lila May was beloved for her loyalty to her Alma Mater. She was presented on Alumnae Day, 1953, the alumnae's highest honor, the Alumnae Award for distinguished service which reflects honor upon Wesleyan College.

Alumna Publishes Sixth Book

The Alumnae Office has just received a copy of "Saturday Cousins," the sixth book by Rebecca (Caudill) Ayars, A.B. 1920.

The story set in the Kentucky hill country of forty years ago will fascinate youngsters just learning how to read. Recapturing all the flavor of a warm and wholesome era in American history, "Saturday Cousins" is a refreshing story of six little cousins and how they spent weekends before days of television, radio, picture shows, and superhighways.

Rebecca is widely known for her children's books. Born in Harlan County, Ky., she depicts her own childhood background in "Happy Little Family," "Schoolhouse in the Woods," and "Up and Down the River." Other works are "Tree of Freedom," "Barrie and Daughter," and now "Saturday Cousins."

Gift To Campbell Art Collection

Nelson Seale of Jackson Heights, N. Y., has sent Wesleyan one of his watercolors, "Sunshine After Rain." According to The Art Digest of October, 1950, Nelson Seale's watercolors show that he has selective vision which enables him to seize upon the salient features of a subject. They further state, "He achieves pictures rather than descriptions. In Sunshine After Rain, the gray house, the pinkish barn and the distant hill, all steeped in a muted radiance, have a nice relevancy of design." This picture, neatly framed, makes an important addition to the Campbell Art Collection.

REUNIONS IN 1954

Golden Anniversary Class	1904
Silver Anniversary Class	1929
1888	1889
1907	1908
1926	1927
1945	1946
	1890
	1909
	1928
	1947
	1891
	1910
	1929
	1948

Start planning now to come to Wesleyan for your Reunion in 1954. You'll have such fun.

ALUMNAE ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FOR LEADERSHIP

The Alumnae Scholarship Endowment Fund was established from the Loyalty Fund of 1944. The purpose of this Endowment was to attract students with outstanding qualities of leadership to Wesleyan by offering each year a scholarship to a high school senior who fulfilled the requirements.

When in 1953 the income from the investment had built up to a point which warranted the award of such a scholarship, a committee was appointed to formulate policies for the Alumnae Endowed Scholarship for Leadership. Serving on this committee are: Anna (Weaver) Lee, Chairman; Lora (Waterman) Burke; Frances (Cater) Snow; Ida Young; Grace (Laramore) Hightower; Jennie (Loyall) Anderson; and Floye (Powell) Dumas.

For the school year 1954-55, a full tuition scholarship in the amount of $475.00 is to be offered on the following basis:

1. To any high school senior or any college sophomore, who fulfills the entrance requirements of Wesleyan College, and
2. Who is recommended by an alumna of Wesleyan College.

Plans For Chapel Told To Alumnae Board

Dr. B. Joseph Martin, president, welcomed the members of the Alumnae Board of Managers at their fall meeting held in the Alumnae Office, Thursday afternoon, October 15, following lunch with the College Trustees in the Anderson dining room. The meeting was presided over by Freda (Kaplan) Nadler, president of the Alumnae Association.

Dr. Martin thrilled the alumnae present by reporting on plans made by the College Trustees at their meeting for the building in the near future of the chapel on the Rivoli campus. The Trustees passed a resolution recommending the immediate formulation of a committee to raise the money necessary over and above the fund already on hand. The chapel will be erected on the back campus between the Porter Gymnasium and the Mt. Vernon porch, leaving the former soccer field as the lawn and future graden in front of the building.

The Board of Managers passed on the date of November 17 for the annual Council meeting, the early date having been settled on so as not to conflict with the Inauguration in January. The Board voted at that time to induct Mrs. Martin into our Alumnae Association as an honorary member. The Benson Charge will be given by the president, Freda (Kaplan) Nadler, as customarily done on Alumnae Day with Mrs. Martin's candle being lighted by Malene (Lee) Morgan, acting alumnae director.

The scholarship will defray tuition expenses for the freshman or junior year for 1954-55 at Wesleyan College.

The award will be solely an honor and not a question of financial need.

The committee wishes to bring this to the attention of every alumna and asks that she help the College to find students with outstanding qualities of leadership.

Furnish this blank to a student qualified to make application for this scholarship. Upon receipt of this blank (not later than March 1, 1954), the Alumnae Office will immediately mail application and College catalog.

Request for Scholarship Application

Please send me application blank for the Alumnae Endowed Scholarship for Leadership.

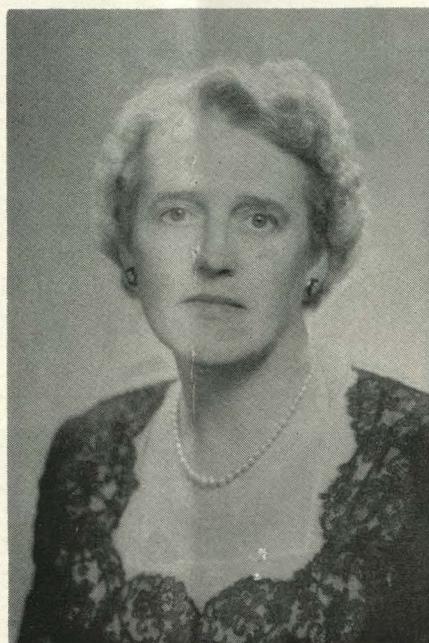

Name _____

High School (or College) _____

Address _____

(To be sent by applicants to The Alumnae Office, Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia.)

Two Maconites New to Wesleyan Alumnae Board

Anna (Weaver) Lee

Elizabeth (Loyall) Woods

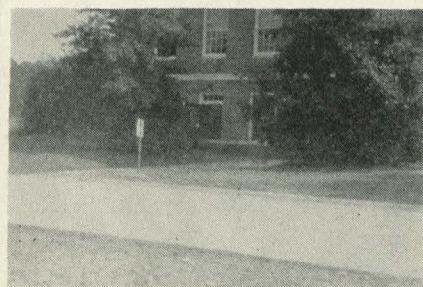

Ann (Weaver) Lee is serving the one year, unexpired term of Ruth (Houser) Garrett, who had to resign. Elizabeth (Loyall) Woods is the new member of the Board elected for a three year term on Alumnae Day, May 30.

New Student Center

Squeals, clinkings, and laughter now rising from the ground floor of Tate Hall may sound as if "Rat Day," pushed and instigated by the worldly Sophs, was being confined to that one spot; but such is not the case. This is now the new Student Center comprising the post office, the bookstore, and the pharm . . . very definitely the most popular spot on the Rivoli campus!

Color was not spared to make the Center bright and attractive, from the red tile floor to the lime green and cocoa walls.

The outside entrance to the Student Center is at the end of Tate Hall facing the drive entering the campus. In pretty weather tables and chairs will be just outside on the lawn.

Outside entrance to student center

We Are Passing The Hat Again!

Let's build our Loyalty Fund into the largest scholarship fund the alumnae have ever raised.

If necessary, let's sacrifice a little this year and really celebrate the close of the first quarter century and beginning of the second quarter century at Rivoli. Dig deep into your pockets when you make that 1953-54 pledge of devotion to Wesleyan.

If you sent your gift to the Alumnae Office before our recent mailing, please be assured you have received credit for it. Later if you wish to do more, that would be fine.

The February magazine will carry a list of the contributors by classes. See that you and your classmates are on it! Personally urge your classmates to respond.

LOST A NAME? OR FORGOTTEN A FACE?

The Veterropt Editor can solve your problem or can even bring old soccer scores to memory by sending you one of the annuals listed below:

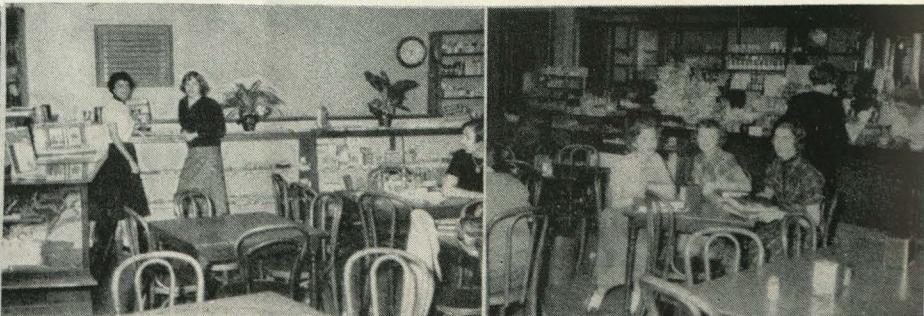

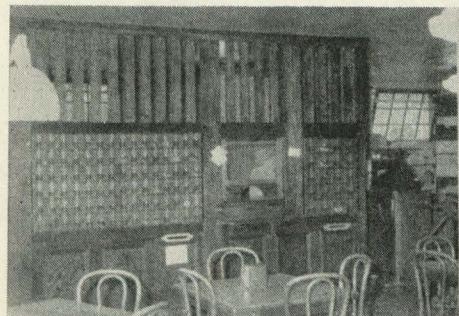

Year	Quan.	Year	Quan.
1933	6	1949	24
1939	2	1951	16
1941	15	1952	21
1946	15	1953	11

1944 back — $6.00

Prices 1945-1947 — 4.00

1948-1953 — 3.00

If interested, write The Veterropt Editor, Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga.

AUGUSTA CLUB

The first meeting of the season was a luncheon meeting held September 29 at the Augusta Country Club with Eugenia (Hutto) Howard, '30, president, presiding. About 30 Wesleyannes welcomed Dr. B. Joseph Martin, president of Wesleyan College, Mrs. Martin, and Malene (Lee) Morgan, '32, Acting Alumnae Director.

Dr. Martin was the principal speaker, giving a vivid picture of the changes and improvements on the Rivoli campus and telling of the wonderful spirit of unity prevailing since the consolidation.

The Club honored its "oldest and best" member, Mary B. (Curtiss) Nunn, '87, with the presentation by Modena (McPherson) Rudisill, '33, of a Wesleyan Wedgwood plate depicting the towers of old Wesleyan. In her presentation Modena said: "We, who have moved farther along life's road, have learned the hard way that Life is an exacting disciplinarian. Some it beats down and defeats. Others, who have in them character, courage and faith, it molds and strengthens and enhances. It is of such a one I now speak—one who, like her Alma Mater, we think of as Oldest and Best."

"Mary (Curtis) Nunn, of the class of '87, sits among us today, truly the brightest in Augusta's diadem. Here in one small entity is incorporated a wisdom and a greatness which only faithfulness to purpose can produce. The daughter of a Methodist minister and wife of a Methodist minister, she has lighted dark ways for others through more years than some of you have lived. She is a beloved member of this Wesleyan Alumnae Club. We salute you, Mary Curtiss Nunn, today and wish to thank you for your life and what it has meant to all those whom it has touched these scores of years. We, your Wesleyan sisters, are proud to know the Oldest and Best has been producing your kind from way before the turn of the century and, God willing, shall continue to produce."

Eugenia (Hutto) Howard, president of Augusta Club, Malene (Lee) Morgan, Acting Alumnae Director, Mary (Curtiss) Nunn, oldest member, Mrs. Martin, and Dr. Martin, president of Wesleyan College.

THOMASVILLE CLUB

Organization of a re-activated Thomasville Alumnae Club is under way since the visit of Dr. B. Joseph Martin, on October 29 to the high school there with Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Duryea, Mrs. Martin's mother, Freda (Kaplan) Nadler, president of the Alumnae Association, and Malene (Lee) Morgan, alumnae secretary.

Mary (Murphy) Dillon, '34, and Helen (McGrew) Fortney, '33, were instrumental in arranging for Dr. Martin to speak to the entire class of senior girls. The mothers of the seniors and the Wesleyan alumnae were invited to attend.

Following the question and answer period at the school, Dr. and Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Duryea attended the Rotary Club luncheon where Dr. Martin was the speaker. The Thomasville alumnae met with Freda (Kaplan) Nadler and Malene (Lee) Morgan during lunch and discussed organizing a Club.

Ann (Dodd) Whiddon, '50, was elected temporary secretary until the entire slate of officers was complete. Other alumnae participating during the day were: Elizabeth (McClenny) Rehberg, '31; Pauline (Dinsmore) McCrea, '27; Kate (Haywood) Robinson, '49; Charlotte (Alexander) Golden, '48; and Carolyn (Eidson) McCollum, '50.

WESLEYAN COLLEGE LIBRARY
MACON, GEORGIA

ATLANTA CLUB

Rosaline (Jenkins) Gilmore, Nonie (Acree) Quillian, Kay (Bailey) Burts, Dr. Martin, Mary (Rudisill) Trippé, Freda (Kaplan) Nadler, and Dessa (Hays) Asher.

The first fall meeting of the Atlanta Wesleyan Alumnae Club was a luncheon held October 10 at the Woman's Club on Peachtree with the president, Mary (Rudisill) Trippé, '33, presiding.

About fifty members heard Dr. B. Joseph Martin, president of Wesleyan College, speak on the changes that have taken place at Wesleyan this past year and the plans and hopes for the future. Dr. Martin was introduced by Kay (Bailey) Burts, member of the Board of Managers of the National Alumnae Association. Following his talk, he held a question and answer period.

Other guests introduced were Mrs. Martin, wife of the president, Freda (Kaplan) Nadler, president of the National Alumnae Association, Malene (Lee) Morgan, acting alumnae director, and Mrs. Ethel Maxwell, new field representative.

Dessa (Hays) Asher, new alumnae trustee, opened the meeting with prayer. The new officers, taking over for the two-year term, were introduced, including the group leaders. The group leaders are Marilu (Beckham) Wing, '06; Rosaline (Jenkins) Gilmore, '19; Lucile (Radney) Newton, '26; Azile (Parker) Alston, '38; Jerrye (Griffeth) Short, '49.

Helen Stowers, senior of the Sylvan High School in Atlanta, and winner of the Wesleyan scholarship offered during the Southeastern Fair A Ganza, played several numbers for the group.

Helen Stowers

VALDOSTA CLUB

by Malene (Lee) Morgan

Our congratulations and best wishes to the youngest and newest Wesleyan Alumnae Club in Valdosta! May we congratulate the alumnae upon the selection of their first Club president, Sara (Moseley) Smith, '30.

Dr. B. Joseph Martin, president of Wesleyan, was the speaker for their first meeting following the tea held in the home of Martha (Wiseman) McKey. He was introduced by "Becky" (Olivant) Anthony. He gave the alumnae a vivid word picture of Wesleyan Today and a question and answer period followed. Malene (Lee) Morgan, alumnae secretary, next urged the alumnae to cooperate with their new Club president and she also stressed this year's Loyalty Fund. The other guests for the tea were Mrs. Martin, wife of the president, and Mrs. Duryea, Mrs. Martin's mother.

Our thanks to Rebekah "Becky" (Olivant) Anthony, '23, for all she did to make this meeting possible; to Martha (Wiseman) McKey, '36, for having the meeting in her beautiful home; to Louie (Peeples) Dukes, '16, for her exquisite flower arrangements; and to Betty (Hitch) Owens, '34, Grace (Freeman) Dennis, '37, Evelyn (Carter) Wilkes, '34, Ouida (Carter) Castleberry, '36, Ruby L. McKinney, '15, Annie Laura (Maynard) Smith, '12, Lillian Ethel (Moore) Cattledge, '18, and others for the delicious refreshments.

The nominating committee consisted of Martha (Wiseman) McKey, Betty (Hitch) Owens, and Grace (Freeman) Dennis. Other alumnae attending besides those already mentioned were: Ruth Hill

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, CLUB

Annette Loyd, Secretary.

An enthusiastic group of Wesleyan alumnae in San Antonio met Friday, September 18, to organize and elect officers. Lillian (Mann) Jacquet, '41, was elected President, and Annette (Emerson) Loyd, '47, was elected Secretary.

The club plans to make an effort to familiarize students and their parents with Wesleyan, and to encourage the attendance at Wesleyan of San Antonio girls. One project to promote this will be the placing of catalogs and literature from the college in the libraries of five major high schools here.

In January, the club will give a tea for girls interested in Wesleyan, and alumnae from surrounding cities will be invited. Dr. Martin, President of Wesleyan College will fly to San Antonio to speak at this meeting.

The club will meet every month, and we will welcome any alumnae at these meetings.

* * * * * BRUNSWICK CLUB

Plans are underway for the re-activating of the Brunswick Alumnae Club under the leadership of Sarah Hammons, '37, who in the past served as the Club president for two years.

An informal tea is being planned for Saturday, November 14, at which time Dr. B. Joseph Martin, President of Wesleyan, will speak. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Martin and Malene (Lee) Morgan, alumnae secretary.

(Reid) Powell, '42; Kathleen (Roberts) Winn, '05; Ella (Morrow) Barnes, '09; Lillian (Chester) Gober, '20; all of Valdosta; and two from Quitman, Maude Lovett (Phillips) Fry, '10; and Wyolene (Hart) Griner, '24. The mothers of the Valdosta girls now attending Wesleyan were also invited.

Three alumnae above are talking to Miss Ruth Simonson, speech department head, about play to sponsor. Left to right, Banks Armand former college bursar; Miss Simonson, Mary Pate, '48, member of speech department, and Elizabeth (Walker) Preston, '35.

MACON CLUB

The Macon Wesleyan Alumnae Club again this October entertained the Miller High School seniors and their parents at a tea Sunday afternoon, October 25, on the Rivoli campus.

As the visitors arrived, they registered, signed identification cards, and were given an attractive folder showing opportunities at Wesleyan. They were received by Wray (Shepherd) Marsh, president of the Macon Club, Dr. B. Joseph Martin, president of Wesleyan College, Mrs. Martin, Dr. S. L. Akers, Dean of the Liberal Arts School, Freda (Kaplan) Nadler, president of the Alumnae Association, Dr. Sigurd Jorgensen, Dean of the Fine Arts School, Jeannice Hammond of West Palm Beach, Fla., and Ruth White, Atlanta, co-presidents of Student Government.

Tea was served in the student lounge. Mary Ann Meadows, '53 graduate, was in charge of the musical program that formed a background during the afternoon, and colored slides showing scenes and activities at Wesleyan were shown in the TV room. During the afternoon Macon boarding students and town students served as guides to take the seniors and their parents on tours of the campus.

The alumnae helping to serve were: Evelyn (Thaxton) Thrasher, Margaret (Otto) Lamb, Margaret (Murphy) Martin, Mary Pate, Virginia (Anderson) Ivey, Elizabeth (Walker) Preston, Milledge (Anderson) Brown, Martha (Clark) Baker.

The alumnae in charge of registration were: Emily Orr, Geraldine Jackson, Lucile Carswell, and Willie Mae Little.

The Macon Club this year has taken over the sponsorship of the cakes for the monthly birthday parties for the Wesleyan students. In October there were three tables of girls celebrating birthdays, and some of them are pictured at the left.

November has been set aside as "Hospitality Month" by the Macon Club, under the chairmanship of Katherine (Jordan) Stewart, '35, and the faculty members in small groups will be entertained in the homes of many of the alumnae.

Plans are underway for the Macon Club to sponsor one of the productions of the Wesleyan Drama Department later in the year.

Fall Meeting

The first meeting for the new year of the entire Macon Club was on the afternoon of November 17 in conjunction with the first Alumnae Workshop held in the student parlors, and presided over by the national president of the Alumnae Association, Freda (Kaplan) Nadler.

After receiving information from the deans of the Liberal Arts School and Fine Arts School, the Macon alumnae volunteered to contact prospective high school seniors assigned to them.

Macon Club President, Wray (Shepherd) Marsh, '34, Club treasurer, Margaret (Murphy) Martin, '33, and Mary (Nicholson) Ainsworth, '91, discuss program for the Alumnae Workshop and fall club meeting combined.

A group snapped while on tour of the campus during tea for Miller High girls. Left to right, front row, Joan Cassidy and Julia Stillwell, both seniors; back row, four alumnae, Mary Ann Meadows, '53, Mae (Ethridge) Cassidy, '32, Virginia (Anderson) Ivey, '39, and Rosalie (Radford) Stillwell, '24.

Happy Birthday is in order for the Wesleyans pictured above at the October birthday dinner. Facing the camera are three students and two alumnae serving the cake. They are, left to right, Barbara Norris, Fort Myers, Fla.; Polly (Pierce) Corn, alumna, '18; Jeana Davis, Albany; Fran (Martin) Burns, alumna, '44; and Martha Kennedy, Atlanta.

In Memoriam

Lucia (Brock) Rawson, 1880
Nannaline (Jordan) Barnett, 1881
Sallie (Fleming) Davenport, 1884
Lila May Chapman, 1890
Lila (Duncan) Pate, 1892
Clyde (Hicks) Truesdel, 1897
Mary Myers Reynolds, 1898
Leona (Snyder) Davis, 1904
Lucy Mell (Overby) Alford, 1906
Maude (Johnson) Schuster, 1907
Helen (Lewis) McKenzie, 1917
Anna Lou (Elkin) Seawright, 1920
Hazel (Hill) Grubbs, 1932

Mrs. Mitchell Dies

The many Conservatory students who knew and loved Mrs. Virginia Mitchell, nurse at the old Conservatory for six years, will regret to learn of her death this summer. She was the aunt of Miss Martha Kern.

CRADLE ROLL

1939

Anne (Bethune) Sears, a daughter, Elizabeth Hooper, born August 8.

Marybeth (Jones) Leach, a daughter, Mary Helen, born July 29.

1944

Janet (Allcorn) Williams, a daughter, Carol Hatcher, born October 13.

Martha (Harrison) Middlebrooks, a daughter, Martha Selma, born April 24.
Elinor (Rees) Veatch, a son, Larry William, born September 23.

1945

To Turner Marcellus Gaugh and wife, a daughter, Susan Marcella, born Oct. 13.
Helene (Jones) Schwartz, a daughter, Linda, born in May.

Mary Emma (Smith) McAfee, a son, Robert Thomas, born March 30.

Mary Moore (Standifer) Meadows, a daughter, Carolyn Rebecca, born July 29.

1946

Marion (Chapman) Henigbaum, a daughter, Carolyn Louise, born October 12.

Mary (Nunn) Domingos, a daughter, Alice Ann, born October 12.

Mary Ann (Rosch) Meadows, a daughter, Dorothy Ellen, born in July.

1947

Anne (Carlton) Blanchard, a daughter, Emily White Blanchard, born August 8.

Georgann (Dessau) Blum, a daughter, Frances Madeleine, born July 27.

Septima (Porcher) Murray, a son, V. Thomas, Jr., born September 30.

Rosa (Schofield) Spivey, a son, Oscar Smith Spivey, Jr., born August 5.

1948

Rosemary (Bounds) Reynolds, a son, James McKendree, born May 6.

Henrietta (Sisk) Callaway, a daughter, Laura Eloise, born August 24.

Dottie Anne (Smith) Smith, a daughter, Angela Dorman, born September 18.

1949

Jerrye (Griffith) Short, a daughter, Betsy Susan, born Oct. 22.

Julia (Pennington) Willett, a son, Joseph Francis, Jr., born October 12.

1950

Anne (Dodd) Whiddon, a daughter, Carolyn Anne, born August 9.

Adelaide (Haffenden) Webb, a son, born July 21.

Myra Jane (Holman) Brice, a son, Henry Turner Brice, III, born June 21.

1951

Helen (Longino) Dunwody, a daughter, Helen Adele, born September 5.

Daisy (Weathers) Bowell, a son, John Noble, born August 19.

Jane (Wilkin) Anthony, a daughter, Rebecca, born July 30.

1952

Cherie (Poe) Chichesters, a daughter, Paula Cherie, born July 22.

1953

Margaret (Altman) Housworth, a son, Richard Howell, born July 28.

Laura (Aylor) Martin, a daughter, Laura Cecilia, born August 2.

Jo Ann (Eller) Morgan, a daughter, Sherrilyn Angela, born Oct. 13.

Harriet (Getzen) Knight, a son, Mitchell Hart, born Sept. 9.

Joyce (Hussey) Martin, a daughter, Joyce Cherie, born Sept. 6.

Lucy John (Kennedy) Monfort, a daughter, Blanche Adelle.

Barbara (Morrison) Sinclair, a son, Raymond E. Jr., born July 8.

Jane (Scofield) Bos, a daughter, Linda Barnwell, born September 2.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS

Acree—Moore

Mildred Leah Acree, 1947, to Oscar Belvin Moore, Jr., of Greensboro and Atlanta in late fall.

Barnes—Daniel

Adrienne Barnes, 1955, to Charles Emanuel Daniel of Macon and Miami, Fla., Oct. 17.

Barnes—Wright

Shirley Barnes, A.B. 1953, to Lt. Charles Rex Wright of Robins Air Force Base on Oct. 3.

Black—Wheatley

Nancy Black, A.B. 1950, to Reginald Heath Wheatley on August 29.

Blackmarr—Outler

Helen Blackmarr, A.B. 1953, to John Morgan Outler, III, in early fall.

Blitch—Brinson

Shirley Holton Blitch, 1952, to Lt. Remer Young Brinson of Twin City and Camp Gordon on November 6.

Burns—Davies

Elizabeth Burns, 1953, to Ed Reynolds Davies of Nashville, Tenn., on August 22.

Butler—Little

Rose Caroline Butler, 1953, to Lt. Howell Little of Commerce and Ft. Belvoir, Va., on September 19.

Cantrell—England

Jane Cantrell, 1955, to John Melvin England of Atlanta on August 2.

Carlier—Oberkampf de Dabrun

Graziella Carlier, A.B. 1950, to Bernard Oberkampf de Dabrun of Neuilly-Sur-Seine on October 31.

Cobb—Johnson

Gloria Cobb, 1953, to Jack Anderson on June 12, 1953.

Cummings—Connolly

Nancy Cummings, B.F.A. 1951, to Lt. David Hugh Connolly of Camp Gordon and Pontiac, Mich., on Sept. 12.

Davis—Bauman

Martha Davis, A.B. 1952, to Lawrence Albert Bauman, III, on August 11.

Echols—McGehee

Patsy Ann Echols, to Othniel Weaver McGehee of Macon on September 12.

Felkel—Holman

Emma Lee Felkel, A.B. 1946, to Arthur Elliott Holman, Jr., of Anderson, S. C., on Oct. 24.

Gale—Barnes

Jane Sheppard Gale, A.B. 1952, to Vance Princeton Barnes of Atlanta on July 27.

Harrell—Wallace

Anne Harrell, 1954, to William H. Wallace, Jr., of Atlanta on August 30.

Haynie—Jackson

Mickey Haynie, 1955, to Ralph Leon Jackson on August 16.

Highsmith—Duckworth

LaMyra Anne Highsmith, 1954, to Jesse Marion Duckworth, Jr., of Macon on September 5.

Howell—Traver

Betty Howell, 1946, to Lt. Daniel Garsfield Traver on October 31 in Kobe, Japan.

Jarvis—Williams

Jeanne Jarvis, B.F.A. 1950, to Lt. Ollie Lee Williams of Waynesboro and Cartersville in the fall.

Johnson—Koger

Eloise Johnson, B.M. 1939, to Jack Koger of Atlanta on August 31.

Kenney—Belisle

Anna Frances Kenney, A.B. 1949, to Louis M. Belisle of Atlanta on August 21.

King—Gowen

Ollie King, B.S. 1953, to George Gowen of Ft. Belvoir, Va., on September 5.

Lewis—Gordon

Marian Lewis, B.M. 1949, to Melvin Royce Gordon of Macon, engagement announced.

Maxwell—Sparrow

Grace Nettles Maxwell, A.B. 1953, to Lt. Julian Nash Sparrow of Macon and Petersburg, Va., in October.

Medlock—Simpson

Jane Ray Medlock, 1955, to Lt. Michael John Simpson, Jr., of Montgomery, Ala., and Fort Bragg, N. C., on August 22.

Murphy—Mercer

Sarah Louise Murphy, A.B. 1951, to Joseph Mercer of Cordele on August 15.

Neal—Doty

Katherine Margaret Neal, 1953, to Lt. Clayton Nesbitt Doty of Ft. Benning on September 5.

Perry—Bryan

Martha Elizabeth Perry, A.B. 1953, to William Bradford Bryan, Jr., of Macon and Louisville, Ky., on September 20.

Pittman—Hubbell

Jane Pittman, 1955, to Robert Wallace Hubbell of Decatur on November 25.

Purvis—Church

Ann Baldwin Purvis, A.B. 1951, to Robert Benjamin Church, III, of Atlanta, engagement announced.

Roan—Bensdorf

Luetta Roan, B.F.A. 1947, to Herman Bensdorf, II, of Memphis on September 3.

Rutherford—Woodward

Susan Rutherford, 1954, to Lieut. William Woodward of Augusta on November 22.

Shriver—Sharp

Jane Shriver, 1953, to Benjamin Thomas Sharp of Richmond, Va., and Chattanooga, Tenn., in early fall.

Strozier—Blake

Ann DeAlva Strozier, B.M. 1953, to Henry Hill Blake of Savannah and Atlanta on September 4.

Suggs—Walker

Elizabeth Suggs, 1951, to Fred Morris Walker of Chicago on October 31.

Thompson—Tharpe

Evelyn Thompson, B.M. 1952, to Lt. John Whittier Tharpe, Jr., of Macon and Cincinnati, Ohio, on July 19.

Tolbert—Lyndon

Jean Tolbert, A.B. 1952, to Righton Lyndon of Macon and New York City on November 21.

Trice—Patterson

Nancy Jane Trice, 1953, to Henry Barton Patterson, Jr., of Beaumont and Houston, Texas, on November 20.

Wheeler—Hall

Betty Jane Wheeler, A.B. 1947, to Robert Hall of Rome in August.

Williams—Holliman

Nancy Williams, class of 1954, to James D. Holliman, Jr., of Sebring, Fla., and Birmingham, Ala., on December 23.

Wilson—Marks

Mary Virginia Wilson, 1953, to Arthur Hunter Marks, Jr., of Clarksville, Tenn., engagement announced.

Withers—Roland

Julia Withers, B.M. 1953, to Harold E. Roland, Jr., of Atlanta on June 13.

CLASS NOTES

1881

The Alumnae Office has just learned of the death in April of Nannaline (Jordan) Barnett at the age of 91. Sympathy is extended to her many friends, classmates, and family.

1883

Dollie (Blount) Lamar, director for Georgia of the Robert E. Lee Memorial Foundation, Inc., of Stratford, Va., attended the annual board meeting of the Foundation in October.

1886

Second Lt. Joseph N. Neel, grandson of Blanche (Hall) Neel of Macon, was awarded the silver wings of an Air Force pilot during graduation ceremonies held recently at Reese Air Force Base, Texas.

Ada (Murphy) Pound writes the Alumnae Office that she is enjoying good health and is living at present with her daughter, Mrs. T. K. Huggins, 243 Westview Dr., Athens.

1890

Nimqui (Williams) Smith, 1890. Dressed in costume for parade during Hart County Centennial Celebration, June, 1953.

1892

The friends and classmates of Lila (Duncan) Pate will regret to learn of her death in September.

1896

Ailene (Pitts) Corry was honored in October with a special dedicatory program at the Carnegie Library of Barnesville upon her resignation as chairman of the Board of Trustees after serving in that capacity for 27 years. Ailene's daughter, Ailene (Corry) Arensbach, '24, is executive director of the Atlanta Chapter of A.R.C. Ailene says she has a granddaughter, a junior in high school, who will be coming to Wesleyan.

A musical program in the Macon studio of Nellie Reynolds followed a birthday luncheon given for Nellie by Newell Mason, '08.

1897

The friends and classmates of Clyde (Hicks) Truesdel will be grieved to learn of her death on November 1.

Sympathy is extended to Alice Scott in the death of her brother, E. C. Scott, in August.

1898

A feature of the luncheon program of the Sidney Lanier Chapter, U.D.C., held in August was a talk by Mary (Calloway) Jones on Millie Rutherford, Southerner.

Sympathy is extended to the family and classmates of Mary Myers Reynolds who died in Atlanta on July 9 at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Allie (Stephens) Reynolds, '29. Mary Reynold was the daughter of the late Mary (Myers) Reynolds, '73, and granddaughter of Dr. Edward H. Myers, twice president of Wesleyan College, 1851-54 and 1871-74.

1900

Walter K. Driskell, of Brunswick, son of Lula (Houser) Driskell, has been elected grand exalted ruler for South Georgia.

Lawson Neel, son of Eva (Lawson) Neel, made a memorable trip to Europe during the past summer as a member of Bishop Moore's group.

Corra (Weston) Wilcox's son, Robert E., is now pastor of Grace Episcopal Church in Augusta.

Mary Lucy (White) DeJarnette lives with her youngest daughter, Elise, Mrs. Herbert Carleton. Mr. Carleton is head of a vocational education school in Clarkesville, Ga. Mary Lucy also makes long visits to her daughter Sarah, Mrs. R. E. Jolmstrom, in Miami and her son Henry, who is a physician in Vidalia.

1901

Dorothy (Rogers) Tilly was the guest speaker for the July meeting of the W.S.-C.S. at Dahlonega, Ga.

1902

Carolyn Eakes of Griffin was on the program of the educational breakfast session at the U.D.C. convention in Augusta on October 21.

Irene (Murph) Banks spent several days this past August at the Bermudiana in Pembroke, Bermuda.

1903

Elizabeth (Graves) Bethune is proud of her three grandchildren, Robert Beethune, Tommie, and Elizabeth Hooper Sears.

Mary (Tarbutton) Freeman of Los Angeles, Calif., visited her old home in Sandersville, Ga., during August and was pictured in the Macon paper as the first librarian of the Sandersville Public Library.

1904

The son of Ella Mae (Evans) Rogers, John Richard, married a Wesleyanne, Reginald Cox, '54, on August 6. John Richard Rogers is the nephew of Lois Rogers, '96.

1907

Mattie (Chappell) Lawton of New Orleans and Dillard were in Macon on August 30 for the wedding of Mary Harrell, '54.

The friends and classmates of Maude (Johnson) Schuster of Macon will regret to learn of her death on September 13. In addition to her husband, a son and brother, she is survived by two sisters, Louise (Johnson) Kelly, '06, and Lucia (Johnson) Edmondson, '04.

1908

Alice Cobb (Burden) Domingos of Macon was on the program of the educational breakfast session at the U.D.C. convention in Augusta on October 21. The Wesleyan College idea was carried out in the place cards which were small pictures of the first Wesleyan diploma.

Maybelle (Jones) Dewey and her husband, Dr. Malcolm Dewey, director of the Emory Glee Club, returned in September from a most successful summer tour abroad with the Glee Club, and is very much in demand as a speaker throughout Georgia.

1911

Mary Wes (Craig) Pigureon, who is rounding off an operatic career as associate editor of Musical Comment, the oldest musical periodical still being published, visited her aunt, Jeannie (Craig)

Lester, '08, in Macon a few days in August. Mary says, "I went to New York from Wesleyan with the finest background I could possibly have. All my success I owe to Wesleyan and much of it to my teachers and accompanists. It's very funny," she added, "all the time I was going to Wesleyan, they wanted me to be a writer and I hated it. I almost ran away from home to get into music. And here I am writing. I'm not really a good writer, but the laymen like it. They say it's 'human'."

Katherine (Suddath) Stribling of Habersham was on the program of the educational breakfast session at the U.D.C. convention in Augusta on October 21.

Edna (Watkins) Sowers, mother of Mary Neuman who is a junior at Wesleyan School of Fine Arts this year, received her Bachelor of Theology degree from a California Bible College in Los Angeles, Calif., June 25.

1912

Sympathy is extended to Anna Ruth (Childs) Matthews in the death of her husband, John Thomas Matthews, in September.

The Alumnae Office only recently learned of the death in France March 28 of Pete, the older son of Anna Ruth Wise (Trail) Graybeal. He was buried in Arlington National Cemetery last April. Anna Ruth has now fully recovered from a serious operation last summer.

1913

Evelyn (Cranford) Baker paid a visit to Wesleyan in October. She is now the dietitian at the Appleton Home in Macon. For the past five years Evelyn has been dietitian and hostess at the Southern Rural Training School at Valli Crucis, N. C.

Mary Frances (Godfrey) Candler of Madison and her daughter, Frances, a former faculty member, came by the Alumnae Office to see us during the opening of school.

Martha (Riley) Holliday's youngest son, Jack the architect, has opened his own office on Riverside Drive. Jack is the husband of Cordelia (Dessau) Holliday, '48.

1914

Sympathy is extended to Theodore (Atkinson) Cobb and her sisters, Margaret Cook (Atkinson) Clark, '18, and Mary Cook (Atkinson) Whitesell, '19, in the death of their mother, Mrs. Theodore Atkinson of Newnan, Ga., in October. Mrs. Atkinson was the sister of Margaret Cook, '88, and the late Mrs. Florrie (Cook) White. Dr. Goodrich White, Wesleyan Trustee, is a nephew; Billie Lou (White) Fisher, '11, a niece; and Margaret (Cobb) Foley, '41, and Roslyn (Atkinson) Harden, '49, are granddaughters.

1915

Sympathy is extended to Mary Willie (Bounds) Armstrong in the death of her sister, Mrs. Fielding H. Ficklen, in July. Rosemary (Bounds) Reynolds, '48, and Carroll (Bounds) Leavell, '50, are granddaughters of Mrs. Ficklen.

1916

The son of May (Billings) Barnett, First Lieutenant William T. Barnett of Macon, was pictured in the Macon News in July after having been awarded the Air Medal for his participation in air strikes against the enemy in North Korea. He is a pilot of the 49th Fighter Bomber Wing.

Lida Franklin writes the Alumnae Office that she and Jamie (Bachman) Brewer, '13, motored to Canada this past summer and en route home through the New England states visited Erma (Means)

Marsden, '14, in West Hartford, Conn. They went to Jamie's home in Richmond, Va., for the first reunion since leaving Wesleyan.

Frances (Holmes) Towson's daughter, Mary Em, attended the Insurance School held at Wesleyan August 30th through September 4th. She and her brothers have an insurance agency at Dahlonega, Ga.

1917

Kitty (Cater) Jones accompanied her husband, Baxter, to the American Bar Association meeting in Boston in August. While away Kitty spent some time in Washington and New York, and visited her sister, Jane (Cater) Sargent, '19, in New Haven, Conn. Kitty is mighty proud of her son, C. Baxter, Jr., who in August was elected president of the American Junior Bar Association at their annual meeting in Boston.

The Alumnae Office regrets to learn of the death on September 11 of Helen (Lewis) McKenzie. Sympathy is extended to her sisters, Carro Lewis, '04, and Pearl Lewis, '05, both of Miami Beach, Fla.

Sympathy is extended to Pearl (Tinley) McMath of Americus in the death of her husband in September. He is also survived by four sisters, Lois (McMath) Mathis, '20; Mattie Beulah (McMath) White, '16; Ruth (McMath) McKenzie, '30; Lena (McMath) Small, '35; and a niece, Anne (McMath) Roy, '49.

1918

Sympathy is extended to Grace (Beatty) Furlow of Madison in the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Ella Beatty, in September.

Esther (Harris) McKenzie of Monte-zuma in July entertained her son, Col. W. H. McKenzie, III, and his wife, who have been living for the past three years in France. From Georgia they reported to Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., where Col. McKenzie will spend a year in the Commanders' Staff School.

"Chuck," the son of Polly (Pierce) Corn of Macon, plays defensive end on the Lanier High School football team this year.

1919

Erna (Flanders) Gilmore of Meridian, Miss., is director of religious education at the First Methodist Church there.

Marie (Griswold) Whaler, vice-president of the Industrial Savings Bank of Miami, Fla., has been elected chairman of the Miami Chapter of the Association of Bank Women, which is seeking better working conditions for women in banks. Marie formerly lived in Macon, Ga.

Ann (Martin) Holmes received her Master of Education degree from Mercer University in August.

1920

Ida Mallary (Cobb) Floyd's husband, Dr. Arva C. Floyd, professor of missions and Oriental history in the theology school at Emory University, was one of the lecturers at the Texas Pastors' School at Southwestern University, Georgetown, in July.

Ida (Shellnut) Wally, a former national officer of the Alumnae association, is president of the Fine Arts Club of Ten-nille, which this year is having a series of programs on England.

Sympathy is extended to Beulah (Smith) Jelks of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and to her sisters, Margaret (Smith) Weaver, '22, of Macon and Mary (Smith) McWilliams, '23, of Charlotte, N. C., in the death of their father, Rev. James Smith, in September. Sympathy is also extended to his daughter-in-law, Sara (Jennings) Smith, '33, and granddaughters, Ann (Weaver) Paschal, '50, and Margaret (McWilliams) Goforth, '48.

Howard, Jr., and Allen, sons of Beulah were at home this summer with their parents in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Howard, Jr., began his senior year at Southern College of Optometry in Memphis in September and Allen, his third year of medicine at Duke, having received in June his B.S. degree in medicine.

1921

Fannie (Cantey) Duggan and her husband have moved to Atlanta where he is vice-president of the Trust Company of Georgia. Her address is 400 Valley Rd., N. W.

Sympathy is extended to Margaret Smith (Evans) McDonald in the death of her son, Lt. Robley A. McDonald, Jr., on September 30 in the Naval hospital at San Diego, Calif.

Martha (Guttenberger) Brumback, is proud of her grandson, William Elliott Dunwody, VI, born September 12. He is also the grandson of Mary Bennett (Cox) Dunwody, '25. Martha's other daughter, Mary, is planning a December wedding to Lt. Nathan Thompson.

1922

Sympathy is extended to Elise (Goode) Barker of Atlanta in the death of her father, M. E. Goode, Sr., in September.

Isabel (Hackett) Kinnett's son, Don, will marry Miss Ann Hodges on November 21. He is with the Blue Bird Body Company of Ft. Valley.

James Holt Sheehan, son of Ruth (Holt) Sheehan of Macon will marry Natalie Blossom of Macon on November 7.

1923

Sympathy is extended to Martha (Elkins) Stratton in the death of her mother during the summer.

Rebekah (Oliphant) Anthony is the proud grandmother of Rebekah Anthony, her namesake, daughter of her son Mack Anthony, Jr., and Jane (Wilkin) Anthony, '51.

Mildred (Shuptrine) Chance and her family have just moved into a new home at 921 Kearns Ave., Winston-Salem, N. C. Mildred has a married daughter, two grandsons, and a son who is a sophomore at Clemson.

Mildred (Taylor) Stevens and her husband sailed from New York in July for Europe.

1924

Lillian (Budd) Jackson is proud of her husband, Gladstone, who is superintendent of the Sunday School at Cherokee Heights, Macon. Under his leadership the attendance in the last ten years has doubled.

Bubber Key, son of Marjorie (Gugel) Key of Macon, plays guard on the Lanier High School football team this year.

1925

Iris Antley, daughter of Neva (Barrow) Antley, was third in the contest held in September for Georgia's Maid of Cotton.

Celia (Bozeman) Moore was painfully injured in an automobile accident in September. She is back at work but still suffers from her injuries.

Maryella Camp of Newnan went to Cuba this summer together with her mother and father.

Lucile C. Carswell of Macon received her Master of Education degree from Mercer University in August.

Jean (Roberts) Johnson came by Wesleyan in August for her daughter Laura to see the dormitory rooms, Laura is a freshman this year.

Eunice Thomson was among the 152 graduates receiving degrees at Emory University's summer commencement in August. She received the Master of Arts degree, and is working this winter in New York City.

1926

Sulee (Barnum) Weldon writes she had a wonderful visit during October with her college chum, Etta Mae (Davenport) Young, '27, and her family in Detroit. Sulee was guest pianist at Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church one Sunday where Etta Mae serves as organist.

Frances (Cater) Snow's son, Lt. Cubbedge Snow, Jr., was released from the Air Force at Del Rio, Texas, the end of August and he and his family are making Macon their home.

He is practicing law with his father in the firm Martin, Snow and Grant. Frances' young granddaughter, Laine, was enthralled over her first sight of rain in Georgia.

Freda (Kaplan) Nadler accompanied her husband, Charles, to the annual convention of the American Association of Referees in Bankruptcy which was held in October at the Edgewater Gulf Hotel at Biloxi, Miss. Charles writes a column for the Referees Journal and was the speaker at one of the meetings. Freda was the first lady interviewed over Macon's new TV station this fall. Naturally she "plugged" Wesleyan!

Emily Lawton, who is in Greece as a Fulbright teacher of music at Anatolia College, an American Christian college in Salonika, spent the summer traveling and sight-seeing as well as doing some work on the island of Andros.

Edna (Mahone) Parker and her husband, William, were honored at a dinner party on their 25th wedding anniversary in July by Edna's brother, Perry Mahone of Macon.

Malda (Roberts) Corley and her husband are very close neighbors to the Alumnae Office since they rented the former "Wesleyan Pharm" and converted it to a garden supply store and nursery, which opened on September 1st. Malda writes that she believes she has the "doubtful distinction of being the first grandmother of her class."

The husband of Anna (Weaver) Lee, Dr. W. G. Lee, was presented an honorary 4-H award at the annual council held on the campus of G.S.C.W. in Milledgeville in August.

1927

Sympathy is extended to Frances (Bush) Brubaker of Macon in the death of her father, Home Bush, in October.

Sympathy is extended to Marian (Freehey) Hodges in the death of her husband, George Stanley Hodges, in July.

Roslyn (Moncrief) Jordan of Atlanta writes that her husband is district manager with Life Insurance Co. of Ga., and the two sons are grown. Dupree, Jr., is director of the Baptist Radio Commission. He has a wife and two lovely children. Moncrief is a senior this year at Mercer.

Lucile (Smith) Burnett received her Master of Education from Emory University this August.

1928

Dorothy (Alexander) Smith continues her work as librarian at Bessie Tift in Forsyth and reports that work on the new library is progressing nicely.

Elizabeth (Armstrong) Stevens is medical technician at State Hospital in Milledgeville.

Virginia (Banks) St. John of Newnan has been chosen for the third time as president of her W.S.C.W.

Beatrice (Chandler) Dick and her husband, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church in Chattanooga, Tenn., visited the Rivoli campus in August. This was Beatrice's first visit to Wesleyan since Homecoming week-end back in 1928. They have no children and she is still teaching.

Virginia (Cooper) Sims has two sons, aged 13 and 9.

Sara Lee (Edwards) Whatley's son and daughter are both married. The son also graduated from Emory dental school in June. Sara Lee is instructional supervisor of Evans County. She writes, "See you in '78 — if not before."

Adyleine (Ewing) Blake's younger son graduated from McCallie School in Chattanooga. The older son is a junior at Georgia Tech.

Anne (Hoyle) Upchurch's daughter, Katherine, is a freshman at Wesleyan this fall.

Ruth (Kasey) Yost's daughter, Elizabeth "Ritchey" will be a senior at Wesleyan this fall.

Mary Nell (Wiley) Strozier's daughter graduated from Duke.

Lorraine (Wilson) Brown, whose home is at 6414 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, Florida, stopped by for a brief visit on her way home from Waynesville, North Carolina. She brought her only daughter, seven year old Beverly, and Ella (Brown) Brown, '96. She stood in front of the painting of Dr. Quillian in the Alumnae Office and told how delighted she was to see both Dr. and Mrs. Quillian while in North Carolina.

1929

Lois (Holder) Hagan and her two children, Ann Lynn and Richard, visited in Macon in August although they now call Germany home. Lois has been in Germany since 1947 where her husband is an advisor to German High Commissioner, James V. Conant. They live at Bad Godesburg near Bonn.

Sara Lamon spent her vacation in August with her family at their cottage in Highlands, N. C.

Estelle (Morgan) Thompson received her Master's of Education from Emory University in August.

Edna (Percy) Allman's daughter, Sue, is teaching fifth grade at the new Pierce Avenue school in Macon. Edna and her family moved to Macon this summer.

1930

The three daughters of Jo Beth (Apperson) Garrad of Atlanta, Jo Beth, Janice, and Jeannine, sailed from Quebec on July 14 for an extended tour of Europe.

Jo Beth and her husband were hosts in October to amateur and professional musicians for the Instrumentalists' Workshop of the Atlanta Music Club.

Odille Phelts, daughter of Odille (Dasher) Phelts of Washington, D. C., married Neil Robert Fraser of Washington in October. She is the granddaughter of Odille (King) Dasher, '07, of Macon.

Geraldine Jackson of Miller Senior High School in Macon presided at the fall meeting of the Classical Modern Whose Children and Grandchildren?

Top row, left to right: Charles Baxter, Thomas C. III, Guyton O., and Carolyn Cater, children of Roberta (Jones) James, '43, and grandchildren of Kitty (Cater) Jones, '17; Eugenia Anderson Jones, daughter of Annie (Anderson) Jones, '48, and granddaughter of Annie (Gnatt) Anderson, '13, and Kitty (Cater) Jones, '17; and Julia Lowry Jones, granddaughter of Kitty (Cater) Jones, '17.

Second row, Jack Cutts Smith, Jr., and Owen Arthur, sons of Rhett (Jenkins) Smith, '48; Rolland Claude Ebright, Jr., son of Anne (Maddox) Ebright, '37, grandson of Blanche (Rucker) Maddox, '10; Lacy and Selma, daughters of Martha (Harrison) Middlebrooks, '44.

Bottom row, Johnny and Russell, sons of Eleanor (Hoyt) Dabney, '45; Manuel and Maria Consuelo, children of Jane (Lewis) Marin-Foucher, '48; Edyth Laine Snow, granddaughter of Frances (Cater) Snow, '26.

Language Association held at Mercer University in October.

Emily Orr invited a few of her Wesleyan friends to her home in September to help welcome back to Macon Dorothy (Redwine) Black, '30, and Edna (Percy) Allman, '29. In the group were Mary Walden, '30, Margaret (Otto) Lamb, '28, Geraldine Jackson, '30, Eva O'Neal, '27, Sara Lamon, '29, Milledge (Anderson) Brown, '35, Helen (Ross) Dennis, '33, Wray (Shepherd) Marsh, '34, Dot Simmons, '32, and Malene (Lee) Morgan, '32.

Dorothy (Redwine) Black, her husband, Loyd, and two sons, Bill and Loyd, Jr., moved to Macon this summer from Jacksonville where they had lived 20 years.

Elizabeth (Scott) Hagan can be proud of her brother, Col. Robert L. Scott, Jr., who will have his new book, Samburu, off the press this fall. The famous flyer's story of his elephant hunt in Kenya last February will probably be made into a movie too.

Sara (Thompson) Hayes' husband, Rev. Zash C. Hayes, superintendent of the Gainesville District, announced that a Pastors' Conference would be held at Young Harris September 1-2.

1931

Frances (Holmes) Graves of Barnesville reports her little daughter, Vicki, is improving since her attack of polio in July.

1932

Marguerite (Johnson) Blymer returned to Middleton, Ga., in August after spending several months in Europe.

Sympathy is extended to Dixie Jones in the death of her mother in August.

Sympathy is extended to Frances (Knott) Smith in the death of her father on June 25.

Malene (Lee) Morgan and her husband, Charlie, attended the National American Legion and Auxiliary Conventions in St. Louis the first of September. Malene was a National delegate.

The husband of Eunice (Partin) Smith, Lt. Col. W. Park Smith, was the chaplain of the 3031st Station Complement. A Macon unit which underwent two weeks summer training at Camp Gordon.

Dorothy (Quillian) Smith writes that their eldest son started to Emory this fall. Tony is a freshman in high school and Betty is in the sixth grade.

Dot is the president of the Auxiliary to the state Medical Association and is traveling over Georgia attending many local meetings.

Mary (Wimberly) Coleman wrote the Alumnae Office from Hephzibah, Ga., after the big reunion that she was delighted to learn so many of her class were garden club enthusiasts. She said she had taken several flower show judging courses, but had to discontinue them when she went back to teaching.

1933

Ernestine Bledsoe was on leave of absence all last year studying at Columbia University, and in August received her doctorate in Education.

Sympathy is extended to Mozelle (Burke) Hodgson of Athens in the death of her mother, Mrs. Thomas A. Burke, in August.

Virginia (Holbrook) Griffin, her husband Robert, and the three boys aged 7, 9, and 12, are now living at 732 Oberlin Rd., Augusta, Ga.

Faye (Killingsworth) Geeslin accompanied her husband, Ernest, to the annual convention of the American Association of Referees in Bankruptcy which was held in October at the Edgewater Gulf Hotel at Biloxi, Miss. Faye is administrative assistant to the Head of the National Archives in Washington, D. C.

Carolyn (Vance) Riley of Chattanooga, Tenn., visited the Alumnae Office in August, bringing her mother and father from Ft. Valley with her. She reports Carolyn is now 14 and Mary Jean is 8.

1934

Sympathy is extended to Vivian Eslinger in the death of her father, John Eslinger, June 27. This information has just been received in the Alumnae Office.

The two children of Marie (Hammond) Mitchell of LaGrange, Rose and Ree, visited their aunt, Miss Marie Hazlehurst, in Macon during the summer.

Martha (Lamon) Spangler and her two daughters, Susan and Sally, of Danville, Va., were pictured in the Macon paper in July when visiting the family.

1935

The husband of Sally (Gillespie) Murphy, Thad, was in August appointed to fill the unexpired term of his late father on the Macon Housing Authority.

Carolyn (Moate) Fleming received her master's degree in Education from Emory University at the close of the summer session.

1936

Adele Conner, president of the Bibb Education Association, presided at the annual meeting held September 1 in the Lanier Senior High School auditorium.

Marie Louise Miller, daughter of Margaret (Harrell) Miller and her husband, Rev. Ralph Miller, was baptized on August 16 by her grandfather, Rev. L. A. Harrell, in Valle Crucis Methodist Church in North Carolina.

Mary Ann (Peacock) Powell had an interesting article, "South's Only Confederate Flagpole," in the magazine section of the Atlanta Journal Sunday, September 20, 1953.

Sympathy is extended to Margaret (Stubbs) Rohde in the death of her husband, Charles A., Jr., in October.

Elizabeth Thomas, Associate Professor in the graduate school of Social Work at The University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada, writes she is beginning her ninth year there. She states the education she received at Wesleyan has proved to be technically sound and that her ability to understand what she reads comes only from the solid foundation that was secured at Wesleyan.

1937

Anne (Edge) Jacobs and her family live at 5601 Clear Spring Rd., Baltimore, Md. She says the family consists of "three small chilluns."

Marjorie (Savage) Kirkpatrick's husband, who is pastor of the First Methodist Church in Athens, Ga., spoke at Wesleyan during religious orientation weekend.

Harriet (Wright) Sutton and her husband have adopted a baby daughter, Jean Wright. Harriet's address is 1110 Rawson Dr., Albany, Ga.

1938

Sympathy is extended to Jacqueline (Howard) Edwards of Atlanta, first vice-president of the Alumnae Association, in the death of her father, William Schley Howard, in August. Her father was famous as a criminal lawyer.

The two boys of Azile (Parker) Alston enjoyed visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Parker, in Macon this summer.

Prof. G. Stanley Joslin, husband of Eleanor (Strickland) Joslin, and associate professor of law at Emory University, has been appointed to the Georgia Committee on Uniform Divorce Laws.

Marion (Waxelbaum) Kaufman and her husband write proudly of their four children: Marianna, 8; Gus, Jr., 6; Lise, 2; and Aaron Bernd, three months.

1939

Dorothy (Guinn) Curry, her husband Jack, and four children, Jack, Jr., Jim, Quinn, and Nancy, are now living in Belding, Michigan, where Mr. Curry is vice-president and general manager of The Metal Glass Co. They live at 223 Pearl St.

Jonna C. Johnson received her Master of Education degree from Emory University this August.

Marybeth (Jones) Leach of Lynchburg, Va., writes that she now has three future Wesleyannes with the birth in July of Mary Helen. Her other children are Jerry, the only son, 11 years old, Betty, 6 years, and Nancy, 2½ years. Marybeth says her doctor for Nancy and Helen both was Ed Warren, husband of Anne (Comolli) Warren, '40.

1940

Sympathy is extended to Julia (Harper) Fisher in the death of her husband, George S. on August 28. Her only son, George S. Fisher, Jr., was born on August 8, 1953, and she has four daughters. She will continue to live at Matthews, N. C.

Marion (Hobbs) Marsicano, her husband, Dr. Ralph, and two sons, Ralph, Jr., and Tommy, visited Marion's parents in Macon this summer. Marion and her family live at 1384 Grandview Ave., Columbus 12, Ohio.

1941

Hazel (Holmes) Burns and daughter, Katherine, met Mrs. J. P. Holmes in Atlanta upon her return home from an extended European tour.

Jeannette "Jan" Stanton is now beginning her second year as professor in the Psychology Department of Ohio Wesleyan. She assisted in a research project for the U. S. government during the summer, working with Dr. Pressey of Ohio State University where she received her Doctor's degree several years ago.

Sarah (Webb) Bryan and little daughter of New Providence, N. J., ran into Ann Munck, '38, at the Riverside Church in New York one Sunday this summer.

1942

Pitman Corry, brother of Ruth Corry, is a member of the Southern Ballet appearing with the Atlanta "Pops" Orchestra.

Eugene Kurtz, brother of Annie Laurie (Kurtz) Fambrough, composed and orchestrated the music for the ballet "Dangerous Dan McGrew" which was on the July 12th program of the Atlanta "Pops" Orchestra.

Emily (Whitaker) Vickers writes that she and the three girls joined her husband in Germany around the first of the year and that they are enjoying life there. They live in Ludwigsburg, a small town about ten miles from Stuttgart, and have taken trips to Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, France and Switzerland.

1943

Lucia (Evans) Rheinfrank represented Wesleyan College on October 9 at the inauguration of Paul Henry Giddens as president of Hamline University, St. Paul, Minn. Lucia writes she was 45th in line of 250 college and university representatives, and really felt outstanding wearing the Wesleyan hood. She and her husband and three children she says, are permanently located now in Minneapolis where her husband is an industrial boiler contractor. Mary is 9; John, 7; and Jean, 3. Lucia is on the board of education there and also works with a Brownie Scout troop.

Mary Belle (Gardner) Queensberry wrote the Alumnae Office in August: "Bill has been recalled to active duty as a Navy pilot for two years. The good thing about it is we are stationed here at Virginia Beach, Va., for the whole time. Since this is my old home, we are with family and friends. The children love it. We are at the Martha Washington hotel and have the ocean at the front door so they swim twice a day. Belle starts first grade next month and is counting the days. She still plans to go to Wesleyan and room with Betty (Liipfert) Hewes' little girl. Billy is very hurt because he can't go to school too. Just hope his enthusiasm will still be with him two years hence."

1944

Captain Joseph W. Harper, Jr., husband of Alda (Alexander) Harper, has been assigned as a unit instructor for Army Reserves in the Huntington, W. Va., area, and their new address is 1440 Norway Ave.

Betty Bruner of Columbia, S. C., studied during the summer at Union Theological Seminary in New York.

James Harold Beaty, husband of Stella (Cater) Beaty, received his Master of Arts degree from Emory University in August.

Helen (Farmer) Popejoy is mistress of ceremonies for the hour long program "Harmony House," on Macon's new television station.

The six-month-old son of Jo Banks (McKay) Sheftall and her husband William will be baptized on October 4 at the First Presbyterian Church in Macon. Jo Banks and her husband will afterwards fly to New York and Boston for a week, leaving the baby with its grandparents.

Dorothy (Pim) Roth and her sister, Jean (Pim) Kinsman, '46, unveiled the plaque reading "B. Frank Pim, Memorial, Erected in 1953." This plaque honoring their father is on the newly erected Sunday School annex to the Park Street Methodist Church, Atlanta, which church Rev. Pim served for many years.

1945

Eleanor (Hoyt) Dabney writes about spending a week with Carolyn (Clark) Jackson and her two children in Wrightsville; and also about the lovely new home in Decatur that Bettye (Milton) Paden and her husband, Bob, and two girls are enjoying.

Helene (Jones) "Pat" Schwartz now has three little girls — Gail, five and a half, Pam three, and Linda six months. Helene wrote during the summer that she hoped to have a visit from her former roommate and present sister-in-law, Jane (Methvin) Jones, together with her two children, Tommy and Pattie.

Emily Norton continues to teach at Decatur High. She says "I've always loved teaching. There is never a dull moment when you are around young people." Emily sponsors the school publication, and it has always been outstanding since she has had it in charge.

Mary Emma (Smith) McAfee writes the Alumnae Office about their new home at 716 Grove Ave., Harahan Branch, New Orleans 23, La., and about the two boys, Carey, 19 months old, and Robert Thomas, born in March.

1946

Thelma Brownett is the director of the Gertrude Herbert Art Institute in Augusta, head of the Art Department of the Augusta Junior College, and President of the Georgia State Art Association. Travel in England, France, and Mexico produced material for her one-man exhibit at the Pen and Brush, New York City, in October. Since teaching in the art department at Wesleyan, Thelma has taught in a high school, a private art school, illustrated an oil company's publications, and completed her Master of Arts degree at the University of Georgia in 1952.

Ophelia (Grice) Hollomon came by the Alumnae Office this summer. She has two little girls, four and a half and three years of age.

Jackie (Lamm) Souder of Macon is a provisional member of the Macon Junior League and was pictured in the Sunday Macon Telegraph in October. Jackie has two children, Sherrie and Anne.

Mary (Nunn) Domingos of Macon is another provisional member of the Macon Junior League. Mary has one son, Richard Domingos, Jr., and a baby daughter, Alice Ann, born Oct. 12. The Baby is named for Wesleyannes all the way back to four generations! Besides her mother, '46, there are two aunts, Ann Maria Domingos, '39, and Alice Domingos, '40; two great-aunts, Ann Octavia (Burden) Stewart, '06, and Alice (Domingos) Evans, '12; a grandmother, Alice (Burden) Domingos, '08; two great-grandmothers, Alice (McKenzie) Domingos, '69, and Amelia Maria "Minnie" (Bass) Burden, '74; then a great-great-grandmother, wife of a former Wesleyan president, whom we would like to claim as a Wesleyanne, Ann Octavia Bass, wife of Dr. W. C. Bass.

Dorothy (Williams) Robinson is now Mrs. David Robinson and lives at 7817 S. W. Ridgeway Dr., Portland, Oregon.

1947

Miriam (Angell) Macomber writes of their new home at 1010 - 7th Ave., in Albany. She says Betty Jane (Ray) Finley is living in Garden City, Cal., with her two boys, while her husband Paul is out to fleet on a tour of duty with the Navy.

Sally Bowen of Newnan attended graduate school at Duke University for six weeks this summer.

The young daughter of Georgann (Desau) Blum, born July 27, was named Frances Madeleine for her grandmothers, Mrs. A. I. Blum and Frances (Stevens) Desau, '08.

Elizabeth (Lundy) Sterchi came by the Alumnae Office for a visit this summer en route to Florida for a vacation. She has two sons, three years and one year old.

Julee (Struby) Burke's husband, Edward W. Burke, Jr., received his doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Wisconsin this summer. He is the son of Lora (Waterman) Burke, '21.

1948

Annie (Anderson) Jones, husband Frank Cater, and daughter Eugenia moved early in October to their new home at 3166 Louise Place, Macon.

Sympathy is extended to Peggy Beeson in the sudden death of her father in September. Peggy is teaching at the University of Texas, while finishing the dissertation for her doctorate. Her address is, 511 East 39th St., Austin, Texas.

A wonderful picture appeared during the summer in the Chattanooga News-Free Press of Dr. Emily Jane Bell in the laboratory of Vanderbilt University Medical School where she is doing research on Physiology of Streptococci.

Elizabeth (Conner) Tucker's small daughter, Sidney, was pictured in the Macon paper in September modeling latest fashions for the small fry.

Elizabeth (Hean) Stone will live at 375 Harvard St., Cambridge, Mass., while her husband, Charles, studies law at Harvard.

Sue (Keen) Cook writes of her new address at 4215 North Second Rd., Arlington, Va., and says she is interested in becoming affiliated with the Washington Alumnae Club.

Jane (Lewis) Marin-Foucher writes the Alumnae Office while visiting her parents in Atlanta that "I'm very happy living in Mexico now after two years. My new address is Calle Edgar A. Poe No. 28-20, Polanco, Mexico, D. F., Mexico. Believe it or not, I am speaking Spanish! I was one of the charter members of the newly organized chapter of the D.A.R. in Mexico City. My husband recently moved into a new larger office for his private practice of psychiatry and is also Director of the child Study Center here."

The seven sacred songs recorded recently by Evelyn McGarrity for RCA Victor on a thirty-three and one-third rpm long-playing record are as follows: "Omnipotence" by Schubert, "He Shall Feed His Flock" by Handel, "Eye Hath Not Seen" by Gaul, "Prayer" by Guion, "Great Peace Have They Which Love Thy Law" by Rogers, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked" by O'Hara, and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. This record may be ordered from the office of Elizabeth Marchant, 150 Fifth Ave., New York 11, N. Y.

1949

Marion (Allison) Webb's husband, Jones, was one of the successful applicants making a passing grade when 350 took the Georgia bar examination recently. Only 75 made the grade.

Sympathy is extended to Lynn (Ballentine) Coleman in the death of her father, Simon E. Ballentine, in August.

The husband of Margaret (Duckworth) Sewell, Roy B. Jr., is an official of the new Sewell factory being constructed at Temple, Ga. This new factory is a branch of the one at Bremen, Ga.

Martha (Groover) Staples, her husband, James, and one-year-old son, Mark, are now living in Macon with Martha's parents at 1144 Georgia Ave. She and Mark were pictured in the Macon paper in October as "Newcomers."

Sympathy is extended to Sara Stewart of Macon in the death of her mother in August.

Anne Strozier spent most of the summer at camp, serving as a Counselor. She also attended the great Evangelistic Convocation in Philadelphia, and took in several other interesting points, among them New York City, and Washington, D. C. She is teaching in Jonesboro, Georgia again.

Jean Walker received her Master's degree in teaching from Emory University this August.

1950

Mary Jane Alderman spent the summer at Lake Junaluska, N. C., and loved it. She is busy now getting the fall program for A.A.U.W. lined up since she is president of the Lakeland, Fla., branch. She is also corresponding secretary of the Florida Division.

Allene (Hall) Pippin writes as follows: "Since our last correspondence we have moved to 6625 Willston Place, Falls Church, Va., only five miles out of Washington, D. C., where we will have a full-time pastorate. No more school, let's hope! James received his B.D. degree in May and I, the Master's in Education. The latter part of June we accepted a call here. Really do love it."

Jeanne Hollingsworth received her Master's degree in Education from Emory University in August.

Frances (Mahone) Gavin sang for the George S. Jones Bible Class at Vineville Methodist Church on October 18.

Joan (Routso) Davidson's husband, Dr. Charles Warren Davidson, is an assistant resident in medicine at the Atlanta VA Hospital.

Ann (Weaver) Paschal, and her husband, Lt. Robert Paschal, Jr., returned to the United States from Germany in August.

Betty (Youmans) Williams writes the Alumnae Office that she and her husband, Jesse, have been discharged from the Navy after duty in Honolulu for a year and will be permanently located in Winchester, Ark.

1951

Charlotte (Bullard) Cook and her husband are living at 619 N. Ridge Ave., Tifton, Ga.

Tek (Davis) Hall and her husband, Dr. Irving Hall, Jr., visited in Macon in October en route to a medical convention in Florida. Dr. Hall is chief resident physician of the Children's Hospital, Washington, D. C.

Dollie (Durrett) Daniels wrote the Alumnae Office in July that after spending fifteen months on Midway Island they would soon fly to Honolulu for some sightseeing and then on to San Francisco where her husband, who is a lieutenant in the Naval Reserve, would be released to inactive duty. They are now back in East Point, Ga., at 510 Winburn Dr. Dollie writes that Charlie is three years old and Stevie O'Neal (who is a girl, by the way) is one and one-half years old.

Frances (Hiers) Whitworth, whose wedding was this fall, underwent a major operation two weeks following her wedding and spent some time at her mother's in Fitzgerald recuperating while her husband, Dick, began his studies at the University of Maine. Frances writes in October she hopes to join him very soon and see the apartment he has selected in the home of one of the professors. Her address there is 102 Bennoch Rd., Orono, Maine.

The beautiful new home of Helen (Longino) Dunwody, 2832 Northwoods Dr., in Macon, was pictured in the Sunday paper, September 13. Helen's older child is Dannie III, two years old; Helen Adele was born September 5.

1952

The grandparents of Joanne (Allgood) Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Y. Allgood of Rockmart, celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary September 6.

Ann (Clark) Holloman, her husband Airman 2-C Richard C. Holloman and son Charles of Alexandria, La., visited their parents in Macon in July.

June (Crumbliss) Martin had two paintings in the annual exhibit of the Southeastern Artists' Association held in Atlanta in September and which afterwards went on tour of other cities.

Beverly (Harvey) Hartman writes she and her husband, Loyal, have two fine churches in Millington, Tenn., a lovely parsonage and grand people to work with. Her address is Route No. 1.

Doranne (Jennings) Beck married Herbert E. Beck on May 15, and they are now living at 1111 N. W., 3rd Ave., Apt. 4, Gainesville, Fla.

Nancy (Lewis) Montet writes interestingly of her marriage in June, her honeymoon to New Orleans, and of settling in Charlottesville, Va., where her husband, Forrest, is studying law at the University of Virginia. They live at Apt. F-9 University Gardens.

Interesting news reaches the Alumnae Office of Sheila Rubel who at present is working with the Clare Tree Major Players and will be touring the East coast and as far out as Ohio until Dec. She is playing in Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch. This past summer she appeared with the Atlantic Civic Opera Company at North Fulton Park.

Earl V. Tidwell, USNR, is now a Lt. j.g. and on the battleship Wisconsin, which is a sister ship of the Iowa on which he formerly served. He writes, "At present we are on a midshipman training cruise to Rio and the Indies. We have about 600 midshipmen aboard who are students at the Academy and various college NROTC units."

Barbara Watkins is now teaching speech and English at Westminster School in Atlanta.

Alice (Weldon) Baker and her husband, Ben, are living at 122½ Wright Ave., Auburn, Ala., where he is studying for his mechanical engineering degree. Alice is working in the office of the College at present. Alice truly had a "Wesleyan wedding" since her aunt, Lt. Commander Maude Alice Barnum, '26, was maid of honor; Charlotte Battle, '52, Margaret Lynch, '52, and Harriett Willis, '54, were bridesmaids.

1953

During the summer we tried to find out all we could about the youngest alumnae class, and in August sent out a card to each one, asking about plans for the coming year and addresses. Here are our findings:

Liberal Arts College

Betty Lou (Barber) McClure and her husband are living at 1528 Warren Dr., Huntsville, Ala.

Helen (Blackmarr) Outler and her husband, John, live at 2080 N. Decatur Rd., Emory University, Ga.

Carolyn Blakely writes that she spent seven weeks in the Canal Zone, Panama, this summer visiting her ex-roommate, Martha Bell White, and was maid of honor in her wedding to Kenneth Barnett on Sept. 9. Carolyn wrote from Chester, S. C.

Frances (Bruce) Van Horn spent much of this summer teaching swimming at the new Y.W.C.A. pool in Macon and housekeeping. She writes she is busy now making preparations for a new addition to the family in January. They live on Forsyth Road.

Carol Casey writes she is very happy in her new job at WJHP-AM-FM-TV! Her address is 1623 Lorimer Rd., Jacksonville 7, Fla. "Hope to see everyone at Homecoming!"

Mary Joe Cawley says, "September found me moving to Albany after a wonderful summer of travel in the West. Am teaching social science in the high school, and rooming with Frances Sinback, '51, who teaches general science in the high school."

Jane Cary Chapman writes, "This summer was a wonderful one for me. Twelve Methodist young people from all over the States went on a Drama Work Camp to Europe. We toured England, France, Switzerland, Belgium, Italy, and spent three weeks working on a liturgical drama in Germany. The high point was getting into Berlin and especially East Berlin. Ran into Mrs. Bosch's tour three times and saw Johnina Hoffman with them. Saw Merrilyn (Welch) Eastham in New York on way home. I am now Director of Christian Education at the Methodist Church in Thomson."

Martha Copeland is at Emory taking her pre-clinical nursing training for her B.S. degree. She writes she does not expect to spend all her time studying for she is working in the Wesley Fellowship as deputations chairman. Her address, she says, for the next couple of years will be Harris Hall, Emory University, Ga.

Jerry Dixon, after attending the first session of Emory summer school, spent a month counseling at a Methodist Youth Fellowship camp in upper state New York. At present she is teaching English and civics at College Park High School.

Caroline Eagerton, after graduating from Wesleyan in February, taught Mathematics in Summerville, S. C. She spent the summer at the University of Fla., doing graduate work and is back in Summerville teaching French and eighth grade Math. She is senior class sponsor and also state sponsor of the honor society. She is hoping to be back for Homecoming.

Pat (Evans) Wall and her husband, Jack, are living in Thomson, Ga. They were married on June 5.

Jan Gay writes from gay Paree of her trip over on the Queen Mary and of orientation. She says, "It's a month of intense training in French at the Sorbonne for foreign students entering French Universities. They have wonderful people to lecture to us too — André Maurois, for example! I'm just beginning my sightseeing and will have until November 1st when I enter the University of Toulouse. Charles LeQuin, who taught at Mercer last year, is here on a Fulbright too. So Georgia — especially Macon — is well represented in Paris. Please remind people at Wesleyan how very much I'd love to hear from them, because mail is a precious commodity over here and I'm interested in what's happening at school!"

Pat (Hammond) Littleton and her husband, Bill, who is Associate Pastor at Mulberry Street Methodist Church in Macon, had an interesting summer working with a youth activities week at Epworth-by-the-Sea, then to New Orleans for sight-seeing and on to Ft. Worth, Texas, where they worked with another youth group at the First Methodist Church. Pat says she is looking forward to Homecoming.

Ann Harrell is working for E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., at the Savannah River Plant as an Analyst in the laboratory. She is living at 827 Milledge Rd., Augusta, Ga.

Sally Higgins reported to Newport to take her orientation in the Waves on April 30, and graduated there August 20. Sally says she was there at the best time of year because, after the first eight weeks and she had a little more freedom, she saw something of Newport, "the beaches, the summer, theatre, sailors, and all!" After graduation Sally spent a few days at home before reporting to the U. S. Naval Air Station at Brunswick, Maine. She is I & E Officer and Asst. Personnel Officer there. Sally says, "The Navy is wonderful, classmates. Come on in; the water is fine!"

Alice Hulsey is teaching the fourth grade in Eastman, Ga., and lives at 717 College St. She says, "I have twenty-nine cute kids and love the work."

Ollie (King) Gowen, who married George Gowen, a Civil Engineer from the Citadel, on September 5, will be stationed in Ft. Belvoir, Va., for October, November, and Dec. However, she advises us to leave her address at 1609 Middle River Dr., Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., her former home.

Jackie (McDaniel) Lovett writes she is busy with keeping house, working as playground director with the County Dept. of Recreation, and going to business school. She and her husband, Dan, live at 2439 Wynnton Rd., Columbus, Ga.

Jackie Martin is attending Medical Technology School at Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta and expects to finish ton Rd., N. E., Atlanta.

Mary Anne Meadows is still in Macon, in August, 1954. She lives at 1225 Clifton, teaching piano at the Masonic Children's Home and having two children's choruses. She is studying organ and is still assistant organist at First Presbyterian Church. On top of all that she manages to get in one course at Wesleyan.

Elizabeth (Perry) Bryan was married on September 20 at Calvary Methodist Church in Shady Dale. She and Bill are living in Louisville, Ky., where he is associated with the American Air Filter Co.

Joan Pritchard is training to be a medical technologist in a hospital laboratory in Savannah, Ga., and is living at 1114 East Duffy St. She writes, "The miracles of cure never cease to amaze me." I plan to be at Wesleyan to see everybody at Homecoming."

Anne Rast writes, "I'm working at the Welfare Dept. in Spartanburg. I'm called a Visitor which means I do general case work in the field of Public Assistance. It seems odd at times to have a stenographer instead of a teacher . . . especially since fall has come. I'm surely missing all of you and counting the days 'til Homecoming." Anne lives at 608 Palmetto St., Spartanburg, S. C.

Margaret "Peg" (Rodgers) Whitaker and her husband, Bob, are stationed at Elgin Air Force Base, Fla., address c/o Lt. Robert H. Whitaker, Hg. A.F.A.C. — A.C.T.W. "Peg" is teaching the fourth grade at the Base Elementary School, and they will be there until Bob gets out of service next July. She writes she has seen Louise (Smith) Walker, '52, several times because her husband is stationed there too.

Joanne Stiefel is teaching English in Junior High in Graniteville, S. C. She says, "During the summer I worked at the Civic Center teaching swimming and as assistant director. Lots of my time went to chaperoning a bunch of my 'pets' whenever they wanted to do something in a big group."

Gary (Still) Suters writes she started teaching this September at Morris Brandon School in Atlanta, 2nd grade, and still doesn't feel too secure in a kitchen! She is living at 6 Pine Circle N. E., Apt. D.

Nell Ann Summers began working on the personnel staff of the Downingtown Paper Company, Downingtown, Pa. (a suburb of Philadelphia), on September 28. She says the emphasis of her work is "Human Relations in Industry." I represent them at conferences with this emphasis, work with the editing of the company paper, screen applicants for jobs, etc.

Elsie Sutherland is living at home, Columbia, S. C., and teaching English and History in the high school. This past summer she worked at the Veterans' Administration in Washington, D. C. During a trip over to Williamsburg she ran into Jean Malone, '54, and later in New York, she writes, "Dr. Sherriff and I lucked into each other at the U. N. building."

Charlotte Theodocion writes from 1600 Constance St., New Orleans 13, La., "I am in the Tulane University School of Social Work beginning two years on a Master's degree. As a part of my training, I'll be working in the Dept. of Public Welfare. I'm living in a most colorful section of New Orleans (at Kingsley Settlement House) where children smoke cigarettes before they hear of school. It is going to be quite an experience living here in this fabulous city."

Margaret (Thornton) Bissell, besides keeping house at 912 West Ave., N. Augusta, S. C., is teaching the sixth grade. She says her 42 students are a handful and that she is looking forward to seeing everyone at Homecoming.

Mary (Tidwell) Williams writes she is living in Philadelphia, Pa., and keeping house for her husband who is chief resident physician at St. Christopher's Hospital for Children located at 2600 N. Lawrence St.

Eugenia Trapp writes she is living at 3 Richmond Pl., New Orleans, La., while doing graduate work in Mathematics at Tulane.

Betty Wade writes she is enjoying her working at Radio Station WBML in Macon.

Mary Warren is working as an analyst for du Pont at the Savannah River Plant. She is living with Jean Peacock at 1605½ Monte Sano Ave., Augusta, Ga.

Merrilyn (Welch) Eastham reports a "heavenly" honeymoon on Heart Lake on the Canadian border near Lake Placid and a grand summer on Lake George at Silver Bay Association. Starting September 15 Merrilyn and her husband, Dana, began graduate work at Boston University, Merrilyn in Religious Education and Dana's in Public Relations. They are living at 284 Dartmouth St., Boston.

Martha Bell (White) Barnett writes of her wedding on September 9 in Colon, Panama. She and her husband, Kenneth, left by ship on September 12 for New York and Philadelphia where her husband entered graduate school at Wharton School of Finance. Martha plans to teach in Philadelphia. During the summer she taught English to Puerto Rican troops. Her new address is 31 Norwood Rd., West Hartford, Conn.

Pat Zoucks writes from Savannah that this summer she studied at Peabody College in Nashville to finish some Education courses for her professional certificate. While there she did some work on her M.A. too. Now she is teaching the 7th grade in Savannah and loves it. Her address is 226 E. 53rd St.

Fine Arts College

Laura (Aylor) Martin and her husband, Merritt, live in Warner Robins, Ga. Since the baby daughter, Laura Cecilia, arrived on August 2, Laura says she has neglected her music. She writes, "We are hoping to be declared 'surplus' and turned out of the Air Force so Merritt can resume his studies at Temple University and we can enjoy the benefits derived from big-city music organizations. Until then, I am just another A.F. wife and mother."

Mary Ann Fitzgerald writes that this fall has proved to be very interesting. She has a job as receptionist and Staff Pianist at the new television station, WEHT, in Henderson, Ky. She gets to play five programs per week plus various accompanying jobs that come up. Her only complaint is that she has no time to see her family although they can "see" her!

Edwina Hall is doing clerical work for Dun and Bradstreet in their Macon office.

Kathleen Harper is teaching piano to 40 pupils in the elementary school in York, S. C., and is doing substitute work as church organist. She lives at 225 Wiley Ave.

Claire Houser is teaching private speech in the Perry Schools, and commuting daily from her home in Ft. Valley.

Olive Long writes that she and her family have moved across Atlanta to 1630 N. Decatur Rd., N. E. She is teaching music at Roosevelt High School there, having two mixed choirs of advanced students and three classes of eighth grade general music.

Lynda McKee has been working at Radio Station WLAS in LaGrange, Ga., since July 1st, and has her own program, "Lynda's Notebook," during which she gives women's news and has interviews. She lives at 304 Park Ave.

Emma Pate attended both sessions this summer at Georgia Teacher's College and is now teaching the third grade in the Ocilla, Ga., school.

Anne (Strozier) Blake and her husband, Henry, are living at Emory University, Ga., address Box 926. Anne is working in the accounting office of the Telephone Company while her husband is in law school.

Margaret Smith spent her summer in the mountains of Tennessee as counselor at Camp Nakanawa. She left in September for New York where she will study for two years on her Master's degree in sacred music at Union Theological Seminary. Her address is 102 McGiffert Hall, 99 Claremont Ave., N. Y. 27, N. Y.

Peggy Smith is teaching voice and public school music at the Academy for the Blind in Macon. She is also choral director there. Peggy is even studying Braille in order to help the pupils.

Susan Thigpen is teaching piano at Wesleyan College.

Margaret Whitley is teacher of public school music and assistant director of the high school glee club in Carrollton, Ga.

Julie (Withers) Roland and her husband, Harold, are living at 221 Oak Lane, Decatur, Ga. Julie has a class of piano students in her home while her husband finishes his studies.

Mary Ann Wittstruck is working in the North Barre Community House, Vermont, as a U.S.2. That means working in Home Missions for two years. During the summer she and 31 other U.S.2's took a 6 weeks course at Scarritt College. She writes she loves her children's clubs, piano pupils, choirs, nursery school music and Methodist Youth Fellowship groups.

Elaine (Wood) Whitehurst is with her mother at 2308 Getzen St., Augusta, Ga., while her husband, Lt. James M. Whitehurst, is attending the Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Va.

Non-Graduates

Amelia J. Adams is teaching public school music in Atlanta and living at 1091 Springdale Rd. She is making wedding plans for next June.

Margaret (Altman) Housworth writes enthusiastically of their 5-room house they bought two years ago. It is at 607 Wildwood, Dr., Decatur, Ga. Between working in the yard and learning to fold diapers for the new son, Richard or "Ricky," she stays busy!

Janet Baxter received her B.M. from Ole Miss in June and is now doing graduate work in voice at L.S.U. Her address is Box 6881, University Station, Baton Rouge, La.

Betty (Burns) Davies was graduated from Vanderbilt in June, and married on August 22. They are living at 340 North West St., Manassas, Va., while Ed is stationed at Quantico, Va.

Rose (Butler) Little, after two years at Wesleyan, transferred to the University of Georgia and received her B.S. in Home Economics in June. Rose married Howell Little on September 19, and they are living at 1012 10th St., Apt. C-2, Alexandria, Va., while Howell is stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Va. Howell's sister, Christine, is a freshman at Wesleyan this year.

Gloria (Cobb) Johnson was graduated from Auburn on March 18, 1953, and was married in June, after her husband's graduation from Auburn. He immediately joined the ranks of Kurt Salmon Consulting Engineers in Washington, D. C., however, in September he took up duty in the Army as Second Lieutenant. Gloria is now at 1013 Houston, Mobile, Ala.

Marna Cobb has been Mrs. Albert L. Chalker since August, 1951. They have one little boy, Wilton Foster, born November 5, 1952; and Marna's husband, Chuck, is in the hardware business with her father. They live at Highlands, N. C.

Louisa (Davis) Peacock married William Peacock, Jr., in February, 1951. Little Davis was born July 1, 1952. Bill is a bacteriologist in the Antibiotics Laboratory of Food and Drug Administration, and they live at 1013 10th St., B-2, Alexandria, Va.

Jo Ann (Eller) Morgan and her family are now living at 2186 Bolton Dr., N. W., Apt. 2, Atlanta.

Jeanne Marie Farrar was graduated from Auburn this June and is now back home in Macon working as a secretary to two doctors.

Harriet (Getzen) Knight and her husband, J. M. Knight, Jr., live at 2402 No. Gulf Blvd., Indian Rocks Beach, Fla. They are proud of their new son born in September.

Ann (Groover) Tucker and her husband, Hubert, live in Pelham, Ga. Ann has a small piano class and directs a church choir. Her husband is an accountant with Sing Oil Co.

Sara Jane Holmes writes she is majoring in French at the University of Georgia. Her address is 1084 Prince Ave., Athens, Ga.

Rose Holmes will graduate from the University of Georgia in December with a B.S. in Elementary Education. She plans to teach beginning in the new year.

Joyce (Hussey) Martin writes she is living with her parents in Vidalia while her husband is on a tour of duty. When he returns in December, they plan to make their home again in Jacksonville, Fla.

Lucy John (Kennedy) Monfort is living in Crestview, Fla., with her husband, Bobby, who is stationed at Elgin A.F. Base. They have a daughter Blanche, 17 months old. Lucy is choir director, soloist, and part time organist at the First Presbyterian Church in Crestview.

Felicia J. Lee was graduated from Wellesley College in June, where she majored in French. She is now an executive secretary at Saks & Co., 611 Fifth Ave., N. Y. She plans to study further at Columbia University School of General Studies.

Ouida Mize writes as follows: "Still single! Still love my job at Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane. Next to men the stock market is the most exciting thing ever." Her address is 2335 Vineville Ave., Macon. Ouida was elected president of the Mademoiselles in September.

Barbara (Morrison) Sinclair and her husband, Raymond, and young son, Raymond, Jr., live at 1167 Bond St., Macon.

Lil Munroe is teaching first grade at the Pensacola Naval Base.

Katherine (Oakley) Lind describes herself as one of our "1 year" Wesleyan. She went next to Agnes Scott for two years, quitting after her junior year to marry a Tech graduate, Warren E. Lind. Warren got his Master's degree after their marriage and is now 2nd Lt. in the Army. Katherine says they move so often she keeps her mailing address at her Mother's which is 571 Page Ave., N. E. Atlanta.

Jean Peacock is living at 1605½ Monte Sano Ave., Augusta, Ga., with Mary Warren.

Virginia (Polk) Finch was graduated from the University of N. C., in June; and she and her husband, Dave, are living in Zebulon, N. C. Virginia teaches the first grade there.

Sabina Clare Reiser was graduated from the University of Florida in June and is now teaching history and civics at Kirby-Smith Junior High School in Jacksonville. She says her heart will always be at Wesleyan!

Patricia Robins was graduated in June from George Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn., with a B.S. degree in elementary education. She did some graduate work this past summer and hopes to complete her M.A. by August of 1954. Now she is teaching second and third grades in the Davidson County school system, Nashville, Tenn.

Jane (Scofield) Bos, after two years at Wesleyan, took a business course and worked for a radio and television station in Norfolk, Va., where she met her husband, a lieutenant in the Navy. They were married upon his release from active duty and he returned to his job as chemical engineer for the Texas Company in Beacon, N. Y. They have bought a new home in Fishkill, N. Y., and have a young daughter born in September. Jane writes, "I often think of Rivoli and wonder how things are going."

Earliene Sumner writes from 14 Princeton Pl., Lakeland, Fla., "I am attending Florida Southern College as an elementary education major. This is my senior year and I plan to intern or practice teach in Sarasota. Plan to marry next May or June. I am a member of Kappa Pi honorary art fraternity and Cap and Gown, a local senior honor society."

Martha Tiller has lived in New York since summer of 1951 and was graduated from Feagin School of Drama and Radio this April. She was soloist at Baptist Church in Manhattan for a year, also assistant choir director. Had a series of radio shows on station WHOM in New York and is now beginning a series of programs for hospitals and Army camps. Martha is starting her third year as pupil of Paul Althouse, formerly of the Metropolitan, and is working part time as guide at Rockefeller Center. Her address is 330 E. 63rd St., N. Y. C.

Nancy Trice writes of her wedding on November 20 and the fact she is teaching music in 3 elementary schools in Houston, Texas, as well as continuing her studies at University of Houston toward her Master's degree in Education.

1955

Norma "Pete" Moss married G. Trevor Thomas of Liverpool, England, November 25, 1952. They are now living at "Mosswood," Hudson, Ohio.